Two classic mysteries for Charlie Chan to solve. In this the second volume of Leonaur's Charlie Chan series the famous Chinese Hawaiian detective finds himself grappling with the puzzle that lies Behind that Curtain, the third of the six original novels by Earl Derr Biggers. Years ago in far away England a solicitor is found murdered wearing silk Chinese slippers. Then a detective investigating a long cold case is also discovered murdered wearing the same slippers. And what does this have to do with five missing young women? In Charlie Chan's fourth outing The Black Camel the camel or death itself according to the Chinese proverb has knelt by the gate of a glamorous Hollywood actress who is visiting Honolulu. More accurately she has been murdered, stabbed through the heart, and Inspector Chan must unravel the web of secrets and intrigue that surrounds her and the colourful cast of characters of her entourage, any one of whom could be a killer. These new editions of one crime fiction's most iconic detectives allow readers to join Charlie Chan as he creates progeny and triumphs of detection with equally inscrutable aplomb. America Views China Jonathan Goldstein, Jerry Israel, Hilary Conroy, 1991. U.S. historians present 16 essays on the American view of the Chinese from the 18th century to the present. Among the perspectives are art, commerce, missionary activity, diplomacy, popular culture, and a comparison with images of Japan. Includes a general bibliography.
