Raccoon John Smith Elder Sparks,2005-12-23 The Disciples of Christ one of the first Christian faiths to have originated in America was established in 1832 in Lexington Kentucky by the union of two groups led by Alexander Campbell and Barton W Stone The modern churches resulting from the union are known collectively to religious scholars as part of the Stone Campbell movement If Stone and Campbell are considered the architects of the Disciples of Christ and America s first nondenominational movement then Kentucky s Raccoon John Smith is their builder and mason Raccoon John Smith Frontier Kentucky s Most Famous Preacher is the biography of a man whose work among the early settlers of Kentucky carries an important legacy that continues in our own time The son of a Revolutionary War soldier Smith spent his childhood and adolescence in the untamed frontier country of Tennessee and southern Kentucky A quick witted thoughtful and humorous youth Smith was shaped by the unlikely combination of his dangerous feral surroundings and his Calvinist religious indoctrination The dangers of frontier life made an even greater impression on John Smith as a young man when several instances of personal tragedy forced him to question the philosophy of predeterminism that pervaded his religious upbringing From these crises of faith Smith emerged a changed man with a new vocation to spread a Christian faith wherein salvation was available to all people Thus began the long ecclesiastical career of Raccoon John Smith and the germination of a religious revolution Exhaustively researched engagingly written Raccoon John Smith is the first objective and painstakingly accurate treatment of the legendary frontier preacher The intricacies behind the development of both Smith s personal religious beliefs and the founding of the Christian Church are treated with equal care Raccoon John Smith is the story of a single man but in carefully examining the events and people that influenced Elder Smith this book also serves as a formative history for several Christian denominations as well as an account of the wild early years of the Commonwealth of Kentucky

James Lane Allen John Wilson Townsend,1928 Race in a Godless World Nathan G. Alexander,2019-09-16 Is modern racism a product of secularisation and the decline of Christian universalism The debate has raged for decades but up to now the actual racial views of historical atheists and freethinkers have never been subjected to a systematic analysis Race in a Godless World sets out to correct the oversight It centres on Britain and the United States in the second half of the nineteenth century a time when popular atheist movements were emerging and scepticism about the truth of Christianity was becoming widespread Covering racial and evolutionary science imperialism slavery and racial prejudice in theory and practice it provides a much needed account of the complex and sometimes contradictory ideas espoused by the transatlantic community of atheists and freethinkers It also reflects on the social dimension of irreligiousness exploring how working class atheists experiences of exclusion could make them sympathetic to other marginalised groups

The Victim as Criminal and Artist Howard Bruce Franklin,1978 This first history of prison literature featuring the first extensive bibliography of works by American convicts presents a revealing view of America as seen from the bottom Franklin redefines American literature its history and literary criteria Arguing that Afro American culture is central rather than peripheral to our literature Franklin traces the influence of slave songs and narratives from the convict work song through I am a Fugitive from a Georgia Chain Gang to the Autobiography of Malcolm X to the poetry of the Attica rebels In addition to rediscovering dozens of first rate unknown or forgotten authors Franklin shows the impact of imprisonment on such major writers as Jack London Chester Himes Malcolm Braly Julian Hawthorne Agnes Smedley and especially Herman Melville whose fiction is given a striking reinterpretation Here is a landmark work for anyone interested in American literature Afro American culture Marxist theory penology and the relations between crime and art Jacket
