Americas Tenth Legion:

The Farthest Valley Joseph Wheelan, 2024-10-10 A history of the legendary extraction of the Fifth and Seventh Marines from a Chinese trap told for the first time using Chinese sources Knee deep in snow and under a leaden sky American Marines thousands of miles from home watched more snow settle onto the frozen ground glittering in the fading light Suddenly the still Korean night roared to life with the sound of Chinese mortar fire The Fifth and Seventh Marine Regiments were besieged and surrounded by the Chinese 9th Army Group in a surprise attack at Chosin Reservoir in what is now North Korea Vastly outnumbered and outgunned defeat and death seemed guaranteed Their improbable escape after a week of brutal combat required all the Marines fighting skills and supreme combat leadership It has become the stuff of legend and is brilliantly brought to life in this book through first hand accounts by Joseph Wheelan himself the son of a Chosin veteran However The Farthest Valley also uses Chinese military documents to give a unique perspective on Chinese strategic and tactical failings which allowed the Marines to escape Without the Marines the entire United Nations core strength was at risk of collapse which would have changed the outcome of the Korean War This is a compelling history of the Marines incredible tenacity and of woeful combat leadership as the Chinese gambled away their men s lives and ultimately victory

A Task Force Called Faith Steve Vogel, 2025-11-25 The forgotten heroes of Chosin how Task Force Faith fought against impossible odds and a legacy of unfair shame On the 75th anniversary of the legendary Battle of Chosin Reservoir Steve Vogel tells the little known story of the Army soldiers who gave all during the Korean War s most consequential battles and then were denigrated for their sacrifice A Task Force Called Faith delivers a fresh perspective on Chosin where 150 000 Chinese soldiers trapped 20 000 U S Marines and soldiers in the frozen mountains of North Korea in November and December of 1950 For seven decades the Marines who successfully broke out from Chosin have been justly hailed as heroes but the Army soldiers who fought alongside them have been reviled as cowards In A Task Force Called Faith Steve Vogel sets the record straight What he s learned is the culmination of twenty five years of digging into the story first as a reporter for The Washington Post and now as a leading military historian At Chosin an Army force of 2 300 soldiers a unit known as Task Force Faith was positioned on the east side of the reservoir to protect the Marines flank but was overwhelmed by a Chinese force eight times its size Fighting with little ammunition support or food in temperatures that plunged to 35 degrees below zero more than 80 percent of the Army soldiers were killed captured or wounded After the battle they were falsely accused of throwing down their weapons and feigning wounds As Vogel documents their brave fight through four days and five nights bought time for the Marines on the west side to consolidate and fight their way out The Army survivors and their families have long sought to clear their names of those terrible charges and reclaim the honor they won at the frozen lake A Task Force Called Faith tells their story Vogel carries the narrative to the present day as the remains of many of the hundreds of soldiers still missing in action at Chosin continue to be identified and returned to their families During a time of growing tension and uncertainty in the relationship between the U S and China A Task Force Called Faith provides an original deeply researched look at the brutal undeclared war the two countries fought 75 years ago Chosin was the moment the Cold War turned into a savage and exceedingly hot conflict leaving behind an uneasy standoff that looms ever larger with a nuclear armed North Korea
