Diccionario Akal de Etnología y Antropología Pierre Bonte, Michael Izard, 2003-11-19 Buscar la unidad del hombre en la diversidad de sus obras es un ya viejo intento que desde hace poco más de un siglo define el programa de una ciencia particular. Bajo los diversos nombres que recibe: etnografía, etnología, antropología, podemos definirla como un modo original de conocimiento. Lévi-Strauss. Esto nos permite comprender por qué la aproximación antropológica hoy no se limita a las sociedades largo tiempo llamadas primitivas sino que también se aplica al dominio de lo histórico, así como a los problemas sociales y culturales del mundo contemporáneo. Pero además para presentar la antropología a un público muy amplio y de modo general era preciso incluir tanto el cómo como el qué de su conocer. En este diccionario presentamos los principales conceptos de la antropología, los objetos, los dominios y los métodos de análisis e investigación que ella misma se ha dado. Las teorías que marcan su desarrollo, las principales figuras que lo ilustran y en fin los elementos de una síntesis etnográfica que corresponde a grandes áreas culturales del mundo.

Antropologías en América Latina Tocancipá Falla, Jairo, 2017-10-30.Cuáles son los alcances y retos que se presentan en las prácticas de las antropólogas en América Latina. Este volumen intenta responder a este interrogante vinculando las experiencias de varias antropólogas y antropólogos de once países. La compilación busca ilustrar la convergencia de varias tendencias y la riqueza del análisis que deriva de las experiencias de las antropólogas en la región.

Film Festivals and Anthropology María-Paz Peirano, Aida Vallejo, 2017-03-07. This collection explores the intersections between anthropology and film festival studies. Film and anthropology scholars map ethnographic film festivals and ethnographic approaches to festivals worldwide. The book provides a historical reconstruction of most of the main festivals exhibiting ethnographic film, considering the parallel evolution of programming and organisational practices across the globe. It also addresses the great value and challenges of ethnographic research tools for studying the wide-ranging field of film festivals. This volume is the first to collect long-term experiences of curating and exhibiting ethnographic film, as well as new approaches to the understanding of film festival practices. Its contributions reflect on curatorial practices within visual anthropology and their implications for ethnographic filmmaking, and they shed light on problems of cultural translation, funding, festival audiences, and the institutionalisation of ethnographic cinema. The book offers a novel perspective on film festivals as showcases for cinema, socio-cultural hubs, and distribution nodes. Aimed at anthropologists, media scholars, festival organisers, and documentary film professionals, it offers a starting point for the study of ethnographic film exhibition within its cultural and social contexts.

La imagen que no acaba nunca Roger Canals, 2024-05-07. Vivimos en un momento de profundas transformaciones en el ámbito de la imagen y la cultura visual. Cómo puede ayudarnos la antropología a pensar el papel de las imágenes en nuestra vida cotidiana. Y al revés, cómo podemos repensar algunos de los temas clásicos de la antropología: el ritual, el parentesco, la experiencia de la alteridad, a partir de las nuevas formas de visualidad contemporánea.

Con un lenguaje claro y riguroso Roger Canals redefine en este ensayo el campo de la antropología visual desde un punto de vista a la vez teórico y práctico. A partir de numerosos ejemplos de nuestro día a día y de experiencias extraídas de sus propias películas e investigaciones Canals analiza cómo nos relacionamos con y a través de las imágenes y cómo tejemos vínculos con los demás a través de la mirada y de los instrumentos de visión. Un libro que defiende apasionadamente las posibilidades de la imagen y de la antropología para entender y transformar nuestro mundo. Antropología audiovisual en América Latina. Experiencias teóricas y metodológicas Saúl Uribe Taborda, Patricia Bermúdez Arboleda, Franco Passarelli, 2023-01-01

Antropología Audiovisual en América Latina es un libro derivado del Simposio Antropología Audiovisual en Latinoamérica presentado en el Congreso de la Asociación Latinoamericana de Antropología 2020. Difunde originales estudios etnográficos desarrollados por varios colegas en diversos países de América Latina: Argentina, Bolivia, Chile, Ecuador y México. El libro está organizado en cuatro secciones temáticas: antropología, arte y performance; fotografías y cuerpo; antropología y tecnologías digitales; e historia y visualidades. Los cuatro ejes se presentan conectados, mostrando los intercambios entre las distintas discusiones. Los artículos que componen el libro exploran los límites de la Antropología Audiovisual en el contexto latinoamericano y su permanente expansión y disputa desafiando las visiones reduccionistas de la modernidad y promoviendo una serie de investigaciones inter y transdisciplinarias que son clave para entender las nuevas posibilidades teóricas y metodológicas en la disciplina antropológica contemporánea. La antropología visual Ana Martínez Pérez, 2009-02

La antropología visual constituye un modelo de investigación social a medio camino entre el interés por contar y la necesidad social de la escucha. De las diferentes fases de la investigación se puede obtener un producto audiovisual pensado para la difusión como puede ser un documental o reportaje. En este libro se puede aprender a realizarlo. Del mismo modo también a partir de una imagen fija o en movimiento es posible iniciar el análisis del proceso de recepción del mensaje. Un texto visual activa la producción de discursos de sentidos de ahí su valor social. La imagen denota y connota significados por eso no es tanto que valga más que mil palabras sino que a partir de ella pueden obtenerse mil palabras del sujeto que interpreta dicha imagen. Media, Anthropology and Public Engagement Sarah Pink, Simone Abram, 2015-10-01

Contemporary anthropology is done in a world where social and digital media are playing an increasingly significant role where anthropological and arts practices are often intertwined in museum and public intervention contexts and where anthropologists are encouraged to engage with mass media. Because anthropologists are often expected and inspired to ensure their work engages with public issues these opportunities to disseminate work in new ways and to new publics simultaneously create challenges as anthropologists move their practice into unfamiliar collaborative domains and expose their research to new forms of scrutiny. In this volume contributors question whether a fresh public anthropology is emerging through these new practices. Ethnographies of 'On Demand' Films Alex Vailati, Gabriela Zamorano

Villarreal, 2021-09-30 Over the last two decades the advent of cheap user friendly video technologies has contributed to a revolution in representational agency Videos are now made by production units that are at times composed of families churches musical groups community associations or other institutions Thus on demand videos produced and distributed within local and atypical networks profoundly shape contemporary urban imaginaries This book explores the intertwined relations among infrastructure technology and modernity through an ordinary yet little studied field of on demand audiovisual production which involves processes of negotiation and interaction between clients and commissioned video makers On demand films are considered as a space of collaboration and self representation that allows to reflect on the potential of fiction artifice and montage to render material desires aspirations and ideas of the future
