Making Sense of Lifelong Learning Norman Evans,2003-12-16 This book looks beyond the current rhetoric about lifelong learning and asks long overdue questions on the motives of institutions employers and the Government in promoting it and who says what is or is not lifelong learning

Curriculum Change in Secondary Schools, 1957-2004 Norman Evans,2007-05-07 Seen through the eyes of successive headteachers and long serving assistant staff this book focuses on one school between 1957 and 2004 logging the changes in the curriculum and how the changes affected what the staff sought to do as professionals

Language Issues ,1997 CCCC Bibliography of Composition and Rhetoric 1994 Gail E. Hawisher,Cynthia L. Selfe,1996-09 This volume lists and annotates more than two thousand articles books dissertations and papers that with few exceptions appeared in 1994 It includes an index of authors and editors a subject index and entries cross referenced according to subject matter The 1994 Bibliography looks dramatically different from the Bibliography Erika Lindemann founded more than ten years ago Many more titles now relate to fields not represented in early editions Although composition and rhetoric has always borrowed methods of investigation from other disciplines areas such as critical theory science studies feminist theory technology studies and postmodern theory were much less a part of the discipline a decade ago These fields are well represented this year This volume like the 1993 Bibliography also differs from early editions in that it contains a section on electronic discussion groups or listservs including information on how readers may join the various groups Yet the mission and goals of the Bibliography remain the same to ensure that it is sufficiently comprehensive that it can continue to function as a major bibliographical resource available to scholars and teachers in rhetoric composition communication and literary education As usual the CCCC Bibliography of Composition and Rhetoric draws on a large group of experts in the field Annotations which accompany every entry in this volume describe a publication s contents and are intended to help users determine the entry s usefulness Annotations are brief and are meant to be descriptive not evaluative they explain what an entry is about but leave readers free to judge for themselves the work s merits The CCCC Bibliography of Composition and Rhetoric remains a critical bibliographical resource one that reflects and respects the variety of scholarship in composition studies and that exerts a constructive productive influence on the composition and rhetoric community
