Abandon Affluence:

Abandon Affluence! F. E. Trainer, 1985 Abandon Affluence! Ted Trainer, 1985 If You Love This Planet Helen Caldicott, 2009-09-30 Helen Caldicott has the rare ability to combine science with passion logic with love and urgency with humor Naomi Klein From the leader and spokeswoman of the antinuclear movement comes a revised and updated edition of this groundbreaking widely acclaimed classic Exploring dangerous global trends such as ozone depletion global warming toxic pollution food contamination and deforestation Helen Caldicott presents a picture of our world and the forces that threaten its existence As always she gives a prescription for a cure and cause for hope rallying readers to action with the contention that our fight for the planet will draw its strength from love for the Earth itself Towards a Just and Ecologically Sustainable Peace Joseph Camilleri, Deborah Guess, 2020-08-13 This book addresses the need to develop a holistic approach to countering violence that integrates notions of peace justice and care of the Earth It is unique in that it does not stop with the move toward articulating Just Peace as a human concern but probes the mindset needed for the shift to a Just and Ecologically Sustainable Peace It explores the values and principles that can guide this shift theoretically and in practice International in scope and grounded in the reality of Indigenous and non Indigenous Australia and the wider Asia Pacific context the book brings together important insights drawn from the Indigenous relationship to land ecological feminism ecological philosophy the social sciences more generally and a range of religious and non religious cosmologies Drawn from diverse disciplinary backgrounds the contributors in this book apply their combined professional expertise and active engagement to illuminate the difficult choices that lie ahead Immigration, Population and Sustainable Environments Joseph Wayne Smith, 1991 The Green Reader Andrew Dobson, 1991 Is the End Nigh? Graham Lyons, Evonne Moore, Joseph Wayne Smith, 1995 This work examines the environmental crisis within the context of the internationalization or globalization of people and nations The existence of life on Earth and certainly human life has been called into question in the twentieth century first through the threat of nuclear obliteration and climate alteration the enhanced greenhouse effect and destruction of the Earth's ozone shield environmental pollution exploding human population growth and the destruction of species and genetic diversity Many people believe that these global dangers represent a crisis of such a magnitude that they can only be effectively dealt with by a global response in particular by the abandonment of the sovereignty of nations and the construction of a one world government in some shape or form This new world order would also save us from ourselves bringing about an era of sustainable peace on Earth It is argued here that this internationalist vision cannot succeed it will destroy the environment not preserve it and bring about an era of turmoil and warfare not peace In particular it is demonstrated that the environmental crisis is in part a product of internationalism This book examines the deleterious consequences of internationalism with respect to major environmental and political debates such as ecologically sustainable development technology and human freedom economic rationalism and economic internationalism immigration
