Abbies God:

God's Babies John McKeown,2014-12-17 The human population s annual total consumption is not sustainable by one planet This unprecedented situation calls for a reform of religious cultures that promote a large ideal family size Many observers assume that Christianity is inevitably part of this problem because it promotes family values and statistically in America and elsewhere has a higher birthrate than nonreligious people This book explores diverse ideas about human reproduction in the church past and present It investigates an extreme fringe of U S Protestantism including the Quiverfull movement that use Old Testament fruitful verses to support natalist ideas explicitly promoting higher fecundity It also challenges the claim by some natalists that Martin Luther in the 16th century advocated similar ideas This book argues that natalism is inappropriate as a Christian application of Scripture especially since rich populations total footprints are detrimental to biodiversity and to human welfare It explores the ancient cultural context of the Bible verses quoted by natalists Challenging the assumption that religion normally promotes fecundity the book finds surprising exceptions among early Christians with a special focus on Saint Augustine since they advocated spiritual fecundity in preference to biological fecundity Finally the book uses a hermeneutic lens derived from Genesis 1 and prioritising the modern problem of biodiversity to provide ecological interpretations of the Bible s fruitful verses

Pastoral Care for Survivors of a Traumatic Death Jeonghyun Park,2017-11-07 Modern life has led to an increase in traumatic deaths such as accidents murders suicide and other types of unanticipated violent death Family members and friends grieving a traumatic death face enormous shock numbness and despair as well as the need to find hope and God's mercy and grace in the midst of chaos difficult questions and confusion The Christian church and faith community often do not provide appropriate pastoral care to help the bereaved overcome their despair Jeonghyun Park explores the unique characteristics and dynamics of traumatic grief or grief in response to traumatic death and present several approaches to pastoral care The survivors of a traumatic death are likely to ask pastors spiritually despairing and tough questions such as Where is God in this tragic death If we have to accept this new reality where can we find God's grace and mercy power and justice Pastors and other spiritual leaders can provide comfort to the loved ones of victims of traumatic death by assisting them with their questions concerning a helpless God and a cruel God This book offers new insights through specific pastoral care models and guidance for families needing healing recovery and meaningful rituals
