Architecture in Tropical Australia Balwant Singh Saini, The Australian House Balwant Singh Saini, Ray Joyce, 2002
The traditional timber house of tropical northern Australia is a superb form of vernacular domestic architecture and this book illuminates its unique heritage aspects Architecture in tropical Australia B. Singh Saini, 1970 Architecture in Tropical Australia Saini, 1970 Karl Langer, 2021-12-30 Despite a European training and an early career working with Peter Behrens a migration from Vienna to the Australian state of Queensland positioned the architect Karl Langer 1903 1969 at the very edge of both European and Australian modernism Confronted by tropical heat and glare the economics of affordable housing fiercely proud and regional architectural practices and a suspicion of the foreign Langer moulded the European language of international modernism to the unique climatic and social conditions of tropical Australia This book will tell Langer's story through a series of edited essays focused on key themes and projects Published as part of the Bloomsbury Studies in Modern Architecture series which brings to light the work of significant yet overlooked modernist architects it is both an examination of an architect's work and international legacy and also a case study in the trans global dissemination of design ideas Studying the architect's built and proposed work both regional and metropolitan the scale and reach of Langer's practice will be considered for the first time showing how given his continued influence on the contemporary culture of tropical design Langer has been unjustly ignored by the historiography of both Australian and Modernist architecture to date Architecture for the Tropics Carmen A. Rivera de Figueroa, 1980 The Australian Journal of Architecture and Arts, 1959 150 Geoffrey London, Philip Goad, Conrad Hamann, 2017 Architect designed houses of the period 1950 65 proposed an innovative response to the social economic and climatic conditions of post war Australia At the same time they embraced the aesthetic technological and egalitarian aspirations of modern architecture An Unfinished Experiment in Living traces the emergence of this architectural phenomenon in Australia documenting the full range of its expression from the postwar optimism of the early 1950s through to the affluence of the 1960s It is a catalogue of the most significant houses of the period It includes comprehensive plans and period photographs of 150 houses from around Australia dating from a time when the great Australian dream was the single family house This book puts forward new research founded on the premise that the most significant houses of the 1950s and 60s represent an unfinished and undervalued experiment in modern living Issues such as the open plan the changing nature of the family the embrace of advances in technology the use of the courtyard and the orientation of the house to capture sun and privacy were valuable and critical lessons This is a compelling reminder of their continuing relevance Subject Architecture Design Australian History Sociology Journal of the American Institute of Architects, 1918 Australian national bibliography, 1961 Journal of the American Institute of Architects American Institute of Architects, 1919 Architecture in Australia, 1954 APAIS, Australian Public Affairs Information Service, 1991 Vol for 1963 includes section Current Australian serials a
