Twelve Contemporary Western Artists Buffalo Bill Historical Center, Deborah Goppert, 1978 Contemporary Chinese Art Jeanne Boden, 2022-05-06 In the early 1990s artist Xu Bing stamped two pigs with respectively nonsensical Latin words and fake Chinese characters and allowed them to mate in an art gallery The performance of two creatures devoid of human consciousness yet carrying on their bodies the marks of human civilization engaging in the most primal form of social intercourse confronted the public with the tension between nature and civilization The work also addresses the tension between China and the West and therefore perfectly fits the core message of this book Contemporary art in China takes place in a post socialist post Mao context and at the same time a post traditional one searching for balance between aesthetic legacy and modernization It also tries to find its position in the post colonial globalized arena This book explores the tension between individual artistic freedom and a dominant discourse of central Chinese government between China's cultural legacy and modernization and between China and a global art world still dominated by a Western canon As a case study it focuses on the artists who participated in the Venice Biennale in 1993 which was the first time contemporary art from mainland China was structurally invited to participate in a global art context Jeanne Boden has a PhD in Oriental Languages and Cultures Her research focuses on Eurocentrism Sinocentrism and contemporary Chinese art jeanneboden.com Cover picture Xu Bing A Case Study of Transference 1993 94 Western Art of the Twenty-First Century E. Ashley Rooney, 2018 The first in a two volume survey readers are invited to re examine the history of the West and its art through a multi faceted contemporary lens More than 40 artists are included who reflect the tremendous diversity depth and breadth of a field steeped in history While some follow the traditions established by Remington and Russell others seek to break from tradition busting myths and bringing new insights and artistic styles to the genre They come from both sides of the Mississippi and have pedigrees that range from bona fide cowboy or Native American credentials to careers in commercial illustration The unifying theme is a common concern for and commitment to their art and the West itself In this volume contemporary artists are featured whose work revolves around the American Cowboy Within these pages many different artists some of whom have been cowboys themselves exhibit their rendition of the wonderful world of the West

Deconstructing Contemporary Chinese Art Paul Gladston,2015-08-21 The book presents a range of articles and discussions that offer critical insights into the development of contemporary Chinese art both within China and internationally It brings together selected writings both published and unpublished by Paul Gladston one of the foremost international scholars on contemporary Chinese art The articles are based on extensive first hand research much of which was carried out during an extended residence in China between 2005 and 2010 In contrast to many other writers on contemporary Chinese art Gladston analyses his subject with specific reference to the concerns of critical theory In his writings he consistently argues for a polylogic multi voiced approach to research and analysis grounded in painstaking attention to local regional and international conditions of artistic production reception and display

Utopian Reality Christina Lodder,Maria Kokkori,Maria Mileeva,2013-10-24 This collection of essays deals broadly with the visual and cultural manifestation of utopian aspirations in Russia of the 1920s and 1930s while examining the before and after life of such ideas both geographically and chronologically The studies document the pluralism of Russian and Soviet culture at this time as well as illuminating various cultural strategies adopted by officialdom The result serves to complicate the excessively simplistic narrative that avant garde dreams were suddenly and brutally crushed by Soviet repression and to contest the notion of the avant garde s complicity in Stalinism Naturally some essays document episodes in the defeat and dismantling of utopian projects but others trace the persistence of avant garde ideas and the astonishing tenacity of creative individuals who managed to retain their personal integrity while continuing to serve the cause of Soviet power Contributors include John E Bowlt Natalia Budanova David Crowley Evgeny Dobrenko Maria Kokkori Christina Lodder Muireann Maguire Nicholas Bueno de Mesquita Maria Mileeva John Milner Nicoletta Misler Maria Starkova Vindman Brandon Taylor and Maria Tsantsanoglou
