Fire and Form William Warmus, 2003 South Florida is home to some of the world s premier private collections of studio glass collections whose abundance diversity and quality are celebrated in Fire and Form This volume features more than 100 works by 31 of the best known American and European glass artists of our time including Jaroslava Brychtova Dale Chihuly Dan Dailey Stanislav Libensky William Morris Tom Patti Lino Tagliapietra and many others

William Warmus identifies four prominent themes in the relatively recent development of studio glass since 1960 that provide a framework for exploring the rich variety of works presented in this book. The first theme is what Warmus has called the particular affinity between nature and the making of glass. Where nature creates a heart, the glass artist creates a heart-felt vessel. The second is the ability of glass, equally to that of painting and sculpture, to convey the power of abstraction and color. A third theme is the prevalent use of glass, sometimes called the new bronze, to depict the human figure and animal forms. The final section deals with the theatrical nature of installations and environmental sculptures, demonstrating the surprising capability of glass to impose itself physically and emotionally on the space we inhabit, altering our very perception of it. In addition, the book includes selected artists' bibliographies and a chronological bibliography of contemporary glass that lists key historical events, general trends and developments, and important publications. Fire and Form offers a unique perspective on this vital and intoxicating medium, and its publication is a welcome event for all lovers of glass: those who make it, those who collect it, and those who admire it.

Howard Ben Tré Arthur C. Danto, Howard Ben Tré, Mary Jane Jacob, Patterson Sims, Scottsdale Museum of Contemporary Art, 1999. Howard Ben Tré provides a comprehensive survey of the artist's oeuvre in stunning color plates of his major sculptures, including many recent public projects, as well as his works on paper. 110 color plates.

Glass from Ancient Craft to Contemporary Art Karen S. Chambers, 1992. Catalog of contemporary glass artwork exhibition. Journal of Glass Studies, 2005. Bibliographical Survey of Contemporary Sources for the Economic and Social History of the War Mildred Emily Bulkley, 1922.

Bibliographical Survey of Contemporary Sources for the Economic and Social History of the War Carnegie Endowment for International Peace. Division of Economics and History, Mildred Emily Bulkley, 1922. A Passion for Glass Bonita Fike, Detroit Institute of Arts, 1998. A Passion for Glass is a detailed look at the amazing collection of studio glass given to the Detroit Institute by Aviva and Jack A. Robinson. Bonita Fike uses the collection to discuss studio glass within the context of contemporary fine arts. Biographies of the 57 artists whose works make up the collection are also included, as well as a detailed bibliography of cited works and references on the studio glass movement.

Masters of Contemporary Glass Martha Drexler Lynn, Barry Shifman, 1997. Presents an illustrated overview of contemporary studio glass. Full-color reproductions of works by noted American artists and distinguished European artists are accompanied by detailed discussions of each artist's career and glass-forming techniques.

Richard Marquis Objects Tina Oldknow, 1997. Richard Marquis has had an extraordinary influence on the development of contemporary studio glass in America and around the world. Studying at the University of California at Berkeley during the 1960s, he explored ceramics and was introduced to glassblowing. Unsatisfied by the limited techniques practiced in American studio glass at that time, Marquis went to the island of Murano near Venice to observe and work with the masters of a glassblowing tradition acknowledged as the best in the world. Freely sharing the techniques he learned in Venice, Marquis has demonstrated and taught throughout the U S Europe Japan Australia and New Zealand The effect of Venetian glassblowing techniques on American studio glass enabled glass artists to expand their technical vocabularies and combined with new and experimental approaches led to the redefinition of glass as an artistic medium As an artist Marquis is admired for his sophisticated understanding of color and form as much as for his humor and willingness to experiment As a glassblower he has influenced an entire generation of artists working in glass who aspire to his technical mastery and the originality of his voice He lives on an island in Puget Sound The Annual Invitational Exhibition 1973 - 1992 Habatat Galleries,1992

Technology and Culture ,1990 New Glass Review ,2003 Publishers Directory ,1994
