Mediating Modernity Lauren B. Strauss, Michael Brenner, 2008 A landmark collection of essays by prominent academics in modern Jewish and German Jewish history honoring Michael A Meyer a pioneer in those fields In Mediating Modernity contemporary Jewish scholars pay tribute to Michael A Meyer scholar of German Jewish history and the history of Reform Judaism with a collection of essays that highlight growing diversity within the discipline of Jewish studies. The occasion of Meyer's seventieth birthday has served as motivation for his colleagues Lauren B. Strauss and Michael Brenner to compile this volume with essays by twenty-four leading academics representing institutions in five countries. Mediating Modernity is introduced by an overview of modern Jewish historiography largely drawing on Meyer's work in that field delineating important connections between the writing of history and the environment in which it is written. Meyer's own areas of specialization are reflected in essays on Moses Mendelssohn, German Jewish historiography, the religious and social practices of German Jews, Reform Judaism, and various Jewish communities in America. The volume's field of inquiry is broadened by essays that deal with gender issues, literary analysis, and the historical relationship of Israel and the Palestinians. Though other volumes have been compiled to honor Jewish historians, Mediating Modernity is unique in the personal and intellectual relationships shared by its contributors, and Michael A. Meyer. Scholars of Jewish Studies: German History and Religious History will appreciate this timely volume.

Events and Movements in Modern Judaism Raphael Patai, Emanuel S. Goldsmith, 1995. In the last century a series of revolutions have reshaped the nature of Jewish communities in the United States and in Israel. Judaism, including the religious ideologies, institutions, and orientations of Jews, has been transformed as a part of and in response to the revolutionary changes in the social contexts of the Jewish communities. The assaults of an American secular pluralistic society have produced radical changes on the fragile contemporary Jewish identity. These seventeen essays discuss the major events and trends in modern Jewish history as well as religious and secular movements which have responded to those trends and events. From 1881, Watershed Year of Modern Jewish History, through to the New Roles for Jewish Women, the Jewish community has been challenged in the face of tragedy and historical change. Jewish culture and social philosophy have radically and sometimes tragically been transformed to the point that despite its unbreakable historical continuity, the Jewish identity has been abruptly altered. After the cataclysmic events of mid-century—the Holocaust, the establishment of Israel, the return of Oriental Jewry, and the loosening of the traditional religious bonds—the search for new understandings has been the most significant feature of modern Judaism.

Judaism After Modernity Eugene B. Borowitz, 1999. Judaism After Modernity presents a collection of writings by America's leading liberal Jewish theologian who relates his activity as a prominent thinker in modern Judaism. Eugene B. Borowitz provides insights into his spiritual life and development as a prelude to his discussion of personal faith. His papers illustrate and reflect upon the intellectual religious path that led to the development of his postmodern Jewish theology expressed in his systemic statement of 1991, Renewing the Covenant. His writings reveal how he arrived at his unique position and describe how making this statement instigated the further development of his position. Borowitz then discusses the typical Jewish interest in praxis, what one is to do rather than in doxis, what one says about one's beliefs, incorporating such issues as aging and Zionism Finally he presents his relations with his teacher Abraham J Heschel and deals with various interfaith issues through his relations with Arnold J Wolf a Jewish peer John Hick Frans Josef van Beeck and Masao Abe three famous non Jewish teachers
