Contexts Of Kinship:

Contexts of Kinship Esther N. Goody, 2005-07-07 In her study of domestic organization in Gonja Esther Goody has concentrated on tracing the interrelationships between political and domestic institutions in a bilateral kinship system

Contexts of Kinship. - An Essay in the Family Sociology of the Gonja Esther N.. Goody, 1973 The Northern Routes to Kingship Dagfinn Skre, 2025-01-31 This book argues that tribal Scandinavia was set on the route to kingship by the arrival in the AD 180s 90s of warrior groups that were dismissed from the Roman army after defeating the Marcomanni by the Danube Using a range of evidence this book details how well equipped and battle seasoned warriors familiar with Roman institutions and practices seized land and established lordly centres It shows how these new lords acquired wealth by stimulating the production of commodities for trade with peers and Continental associates Romans included to reward retainers and bestow on partners In these transcultural circumstances lords and their retainers nurtured artisanal production of exquisite quality and developed a heroic ethos and refined hall etiquette The topic of warfare created by the volatile politics of lordly cooperation and competition is also explored Venturing substantially beyond the usual scope of syntheses of this period this book looks at how the break up of the Western Roman Empire and the rise of Great tribes such as the Franks and Goths influenced lords and tribal leaders across Scandinavia to form kingdoms emulating what they for centuries had considered the superior polity the Roman Empire This book s fresh take on disputed research topics will inspire scholars students and interested readers to delve further into this pivotal period of European history The Beta Israel in Ethiopia and Israel Tudor Parfitt, Emanuela Trevisan Semi, 2013-11-19 For decade the Falashas the Black Jews of Ethiopia have fascinated scholars Are they really Jews and in what sense How can their origins be explained Since the Falashas transfer to Israel in the much publicised Israeli air lifts the fascination has continued and and new factors are now being discussed Written by the leading scholars in the field the essays in this collection examine the history music art anthropology and current situations of the Ethopian Jews Issues examined include their integration into Middle Eastern society contacts between the Falasha and the State of Israel how the Falasha became Jews in the first place Palgrave Dictionary of Anthropology Charlotte Seymour-Smith, 1987-11-11 An authoritative reference work the Macmillan Dictionary of Anthropology covers the entire range of scholarship in this field from the early ethnographers to the most recent research This concise guide provides succinct definitions of basic concepts summarizes key issues and the development of the major theoretical schools and discusses the contribution of some 250 British American and European anthropologists Its clear and lively style enables the reader to approach such formidable topics as the works of Levi Strauss or the influence of semiology and all 2000 entries are fully cross referenced and include bibliographical details The Dictionary is an introduction for the general reader a handbook for students of anthropology and many related disciplines and a reference tool for academic anthropologists It covers both physical and cultural and social anthropology takes account of literature in all languages and with its wide range and high level of scholarship is a significant contribution to the understanding of its subject

Anthropological Linguistics Andrea Hollington, Alice Mitchell, Nico Nassenstein, 2024-02-15 This collection presents new research on key topics in anthropological linguistics with a focus on African languages While Africanist linguists have long been concerned with sociocultural aspects of language structure and use no comprehensive volume dedicated to the anthropological linguistics of Africa has yet been published This volume seeks to fill this gap The chapters address a broad range of topics in anthropological linguistics including classic themes such as spatial reference color kin terms and emotion as well as emerging interests in the linguistic expression of personhood sociality and language ideology All contributions are based on original empirical research and present insights into African language practices from a sociocultural perspective The volume showcases research on dozens of African languages spoken across the continent with particular emphasis on languages of East Africa This book will be of interest to areal specialists as well as to anthropological linguists worldwide

The Aymara Language in Its Social and Cultural Context Martha James Hardman, 1981 Changing Families Bob Simpson, 2020-08-26 Recent decades have seen spectacular increases in the levels of divorce and separation across the Western world This important development is having a radical impact on the conduct and nature of family relationships This book offers an original investigation of these critical transformations through an ethnographic analysis of post divorce family life in Britain and provides insightful answers to vexing questions such as What cultural values and ideologies motivate and shape concerns over relationships when marriage ends Which relationships continue and why What cultural values underpin the financial transactions that take place or more commonly fail to take place after divorce Drawing on extensive interviews with those most affected by divorce the author argues that the positive sentiments traditionally associated with the notion of kinship are wholly inadequate when it comes to understanding divorce but that kinship can provide an illuminating window through which to consider the breakdown of marital relations This book represents a significant contribution to current debates over the changing form and expression of relationships in Western society in the late twentieth century Culture and Cognition James P. Spradley, 1987 Dossier, 1974 Class Context and Family Relations Leonard Irving Pearlman, 1971 The Collection and Analysis of Community Data World Fertility Survey, 1985 Israel: The soul, its powers and capacity Johannes Pedersen, 1926 Israel, Its Life and Culture Johannes Pedersen, 1926 Umntu Ngumntu Ngabanye Abantu Fiona C. Ross, 1995 Proceedings of the Congress - Canadian Ethnology Society Canadian Ethnology Society, 1975 Context and Meaning in Cultural Anthropology Melford E. Spiro, Alfred Irving Hallowell, 1965 In honour of A Irving Hallowell Tokelau Judith Huntsman, Antony Hooper, 1996 Tokelau A Historical Ethnography is the outcome of more than two decades of intensive and wide ranging research in and about the three tiny Polynesian atolls known as Tokelau The book is both a comparative ethnographic study of the islands of Tokelau and a narrative record of their past The ethnographic study is set in the years around 1970 and local narratives and records complement foreign documents to tell the separate and combined stories of the atolls traditional contact and colonial pasts Throughout the differences and interrelationships between the three places are highlighted Evolution and Human
