Contemporary Perspectives on China Tourism Honggen Xiao, 2014-06-11 Contemporary Perspectives on China Tourism is an innovative and engaging collection which presents unique approaches and critical insights into the policy development and management practices of tourism and hospitality in modern China. This volume consists of nine independent research reports overarching the consequences of tourism from economic, sociocultural, community, and humanistic perspectives. The book addresses generic issues such as tourism demand, mega events, leisure, tourist experience, cultural representation, community development, and quality of life through tourism, as well as strategies and techniques specific to the tourism and hospitality industries. Contemporary Perspectives on China Tourism draws on methodological traditions of anthropology, business communication, and media studies, geography, linguistics, and literature, sociology, and critical tourism studies. Seven of the nine chapters in this book were originally published in a special issue on Methodological Innovations in China Tourism Research of the Journal of China Tourism Research.

Contemporary Perspectives in Corporate Social Performance and Policy Agata Stachowicz-Stanusch, Wolfgang Amann, 2017-11-06 This deepens the discussion on business and institutional activity in the Middle East, aiming to enhance understanding of the region's business activities. The book is divided into four parts covering corporate social performance, responsibility, and specific problems in countries like Israel, Turkey, and the UAE.

Gender and Violence in Historical and Contemporary Perspectives Jyoti Atwal, Iris Flessenkämper, 2019-08-08 This book covers a range of issues and phenomena around gender-related violence in specific cultural and regional conditions. Using an interdisciplinary approach, it discusses historical and contemporary developments that trigger violence while highlighting the social conditions, practices, discourses, and cultural experiences of gender-related violence in India. Beginning with the issues of gender-based violence within the traditional context of Indian history and colonial encounters, it moves on to explore the connections between gender, minorities, marginalisation, sexuality, and violence, especially violence against Dalit women, disabled women, and transgender people. It traces and interprets similarities and differences, as well as identifies social causes of potential conflicts. Further, it investigates the forms and mechanisms of political, economic, and institutional violence in the legitimisation or de-legitimisation of traditional gender roles. The chapters deal with sexual violence, violence within marriage, and family influence of patriarchal forces within factory-based gender violence and global processes such as demand-driven surrogacy and the politics of literary and cinematic representations of gender-based violence. The book situates relevant debates about India and underlines the global context in the making of the gender bias that leads to violence both in the public and private domains. An important contribution to feminist scholarship, this book will be useful to scholars and researchers of gender.
