Office of Education. Home education division,1914 A Contemporary Reading of Confucius in the Light of the Yi Jing and Complexity Theory Wei-Bin Zhang,2025-01-11 Confucius was idolized neglected or disdained over centuries in China Korea Vietnam and Japan as well as in the West but was revered by some great European thinkers in the Age of Enlightenment There are only a few studies about how Confucius basic ideas can be integrated with Western rational thought This new book situates Confucian ideas in complexity theory to demonstrate how East Asian rationality based on the Yi Jing and Western rationality based on Newtonian principles can be integrated This re examination of Chinese civilization especially the thoughts of Confucius in the light of complexity theory is a unique contribution Understanding Confucius and his implications for modern thought provides key insights into contemporary East Asian societies Making the Modern Reader Barbara M. Benedict,2018-12-04 Inquiring into the formation of a literary canon during the Restoration and the eighteenth century Barbara Benedict poses the question Do anthologies reflect or shape contemporary literary taste She finds that there was a cultural dialectic at work miscellanies and anthologies transmitted particular tastes while in turn being influenced by the larger culture they helped to create Benedict reveals how anthologies of the time often created a consensus of literary and aesthetic values by providing a bridge between the tastes of authors editors printers booksellers and readers Making the Modern Reader the first full treatment of the early modern anthology is in part a history of the London printing trade as well as of the professionalization of criticism Benedict thoroughly documents the historical redefinition of the reader once a member of a communal literary culture the reader became private and introspective morally and culturally shaped by choices in reading She argues that eighteenth century collections promised the reader that culture could be acquired through the absorption of literary values This process of cultural education appealed to a middle class seeking to become discriminating consumers of art By addressing this neglected genre Benedict contributes a new perspective on the tension between popular and high culture between the common reader and the elite This book will interest scholars working in cultural studies and those studying noncanonical texts as well as eighteenth century literature in general Originally published in 1996 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905

Premodern Ecologies in the Modern Literary Imagination Vin Nardizzi, Tiffany Jo Werth, 2019-04-18 Premodern Ecologies in the Modern Literary Imagination explores how the cognitive and physical landscapes in which scholars conduct research write and teach have shaped their understandings of medieval and Renaissance English literary ecologies The collection strives to practice what Ursula K Heise calls eco cosmopolitanism a method that imagines forms of local environmentalism as a defense against the interventions of open market global networks It also expands the idea s possibilities and identifies its limitations through critical studies of premodern texts artefacts and environmental history The essays connect real environments and their imaginative re creations and affirm the urgency of reorienting humanity s responsiveness to and responsibility for the historical links between human and non human existence The discussion of ways in which meditation on scholarly place and time can deepen ecocritical work offers an innovative and engaging approach that will appeal to both ecocritics generally and to medieval and early modern scholars The French Novel in English
