Contested Memories in Chinese and Japanese Foreign Policy explores the issue of memory and lack of reconciliation in East Asia. As main East Asian nations have never achieved a common memory of their pasts in particular the events of the Second World War and Sino Japanese War this book locates the issue of memory within International Relations theory exploring the theoretical and practical link between the construction of a country's identity and the formation and contestation of its historical memory and foreign policy. Provides an innovative theoretical framework. Draws connections between the role of memory and foreign policy. Uses the interpretative theory of international relations. Doing Memory: Medieval Saints and Heroes and Their Afterlives in the Baltic Sea Region (19th-20th centuries) Cordelia Heß, Gustavs Strenge, 2024-04-22
This anthology is about the representations and uses of medieval saints, heroes and heroic events as elements of popular, local and national culture during the 19th and 20th centuries in the Baltic Sea region: Scandinavia, Finland, Baltic countries, Northern Germany and North Western Russia. Authors examine the processes of how medieval saints and heroes have been remembered, commemorated, interpreted, used and reflected during modernity and by whom. The focus of the anthology is on doing memory as a practice that commemorated the past and shaped spaces and identities in the present. It approaches the memory of saints and heroes for example Swedish Saints Birgitta and Eric, Danish Saint Knud, Kyivan Princess Olga, Swedish military leader in Finland Tyrgils Knutsson, Liv, Latvian warrior Imanta and Holsatian count Gerhard III as a shared heritage and as part of national, local and popular culture. The anthology contributes to the understanding of the Baltic Sea region through the study of saints, cults and heroic representations in the longue durée between the Middle Ages and modernity. It also adds nuance to the use of popular concepts of memory studies, particularly an update of Pierre Nora's lieux de mémoire.

Politics after Violence Hillel Soifer, Alberto Vergara, 2019-01-14 Between 1980 and 1994 Peru endured a bloody internal armed conflict with some 69 000 people killed in clashes involving two insurgent movements state forces and local armed groups In 2003 a government sponsored Truth and Reconciliation Committee reported that the conflict lasted longer affected broader swaths of the national territory and inflicted higher costs in both human and economic terms than any other conflict in Peru's history. Of those killed 75 percent were speakers of an indigenous language and almost 40 percent were among the poorest and most rural members of Peruvian society. These unequal impacts of the violence on the Peruvian people revealed deep and historical disparities within the country. This collection of original essays by leading international experts on Peruvian politics, society and institutions explores the political and institutional consequences of Peru's internal armed conflict in the long 1980s. The essays are grouped into sections that cover the conflict itself in historical, comparative and theoretical perspectives; its consequences for Peru's political institutions; its effects on political parties across the ideological spectrum; and its impact on public opinion and civil society. This research provides the first systematic and nuanced investigation of the extent to which recent and contemporary Peruvian politics, civil society and institutions have been shaped by the country's 1980s violence.

Out of the USSR Eva Hausbacher, Viola Parente-Čapková, Arja Rosenholm, Marja Anneli Sorvari, 2025-08-04. This book examines how women authors recall their own and their families' past lives after having emigrated from the Soviet Union in the 1990s and how they reflect on their new country of residence, be it Germany, Austria, Israel, USA or Finland among others. The chapters connect migration, memory and gender studies to analyse literary presentations created by these travelling women. The aim of the book is to pay attention both to women's contribution to cultural transfer and to the mobility of memories. For the first time it brings women's narratives as a form and tool to work through both individual and collective traumas to the forefront, remedying a long-standing omission in Russian and post-Soviet migration history. At the same time the volume looks at travelling memories and cultural traumas from a gendered perspective: what happens when the recollections of women's traumatic experiences of Soviet history travel through time and space? As this volume argues, narratives by women who left the Soviet Union often call into question official accounts of Soviet history and rewrite them in a way that makes room for gendered lived experience.

Memory, Politics and Religion Frances Pine, Deema Kaneff, 2004. This collection of essays focuses on the haunting themes of religion, politics and remembering the past. Spanning Europe from Ukraine to Spain, the contributors consider ways in which memory is used at the local level, both to legitimate and to contest claims to power, status and social and cultural capital. The result is a rich and innovative set of texts on memory and silence on the place of the past in the present and on the ideologies and practices which constitute memory at the local level.

Fictions of Memory Ansgar Nünning, 2003. Social Memory and History Jacob Climo, Maria G. Cattell, 2002. An examination of social memory developed within communities from the perspective of anthropology. Many case studies from around the world.

Contested Pasts Katharine Hodgkin, Susannah Radstone, 2003-09-02. This interdisciplinary volume demonstrates from a range of perspectives the complex cultural work and struggles over meaning that lie at the heart of what we call memory. In the last decade a focus on memory in the human sciences has encouraged new approaches to the study of the past. As the humanities and social sciences have put into question their own claims to objectivity, authority and universality, memory has appeared to offer a way of engaging with knowledge of the past as inevitably partial subjective and local At the same time memory and memorial practices have become sites of contestation and the politics of memory are increasingly prominent Memories Walter Hume Long Long (Viscount),1923 The Memory of Catastrophe Peter Gray,Kendrick Oliver,2004 Investigates the dynamic relationship between experiences of profound social and cultural disruption and human memory Critical comparisons are made across a wide variety of catastrophic experiences and memories not just of war but also of massacre genocide rebellion famine partition shipwreck and fire The book is an accessible showcase for a wide range of methodological approaches to the study of memory including literary studies cultural studies participant observation and historical studies and uses a variety of oral visual and written sources Offers a diverse chronological and geographical range of catastrophic cases from seventeenth century England to the recent conflicts in the former Yugoslavia from Ireland to the Indian sub continent from Mexico to wartime Leningrad Well written and accessible a fascinating read Memory and History in Twentieth-century Australia Kate Darian-Smith,Paula Hamilton,1994 This book examines the relationship between memory history and the competing narratives of identity place and gender in Australian society Focusing particularly on popular culture wars and such specific events as the Bubonic Plague of 1900 and the measles epidemic of the 1950s these essays open up Australia s past in radically different ways and demonstrate the centrality of memory to the writing of history Guahan Nicholas J. Goetzfridt,2011-03-31 Goetzfridt s work demonstrates the dynamics of history each generation considering past events in light of current realities and contemporary understandings of the world This volume therefore is important not simply because it provides us with an invaluable and substantial fount of references that will be supremely useful to teachers scholars and all enthusiasts of Mariana Islands history Its importance lies also in its packaging as a resource for current and future generations to understand the changing face and contested space of Guam history from the Foreword by Anne Perez Hattori Blending bibliographic integrity with absorbing essays on a wide range of historical interpretations Nicholas Goetzfridt offers a new approach to the history of Guam Here is a treasure trove of ideas historiographies and opportunities that allows readers to reassess previously held notions and conclusions about Guam s past and the heritage of the indigenous Chamorro people Particular attention is given to Chamorro perspectives and the impact of more than four hundred years of colonial presences on Micronesia s largest island Extensive cross references and generous but targeted samples of historical narratives compliment the bibliographic essays Detailed Name and Subject Indexes to the book s 326 entries cover accounts and interpretations of the island from Ferdinand Magellan s discovery of Guahan Guam in the Chamorro language in 1521 to recent events including the Japanese occupation and the American liberation of Guam in 1944 The indexes enable easy and extensive access to a bounty of information The Place Index contains both large and localized geographic realms that are placed vividly in the context of these histories An insightful Foreword by Chamorro scholar Anne Perez Hattori is included Guests and Memories Una Taylor,1924
