Carpets And Their Datings In Netherlandish Paintings 15401700:

Carpets and Their Datings in Netherlandish Paintings, 1540-1700 Onno Ydema,1991 Discusses the connection between the process of early carpet dating and European paintings of the 16th and 17th century It includes nearly a thousand examples of carpet types which are discussed according to places of origin Anatolia Persia India and Egypt A World Art History and Its Objects David Carrier,2008-11-28 Is writing a world art history possible Does the history of art as such even exist outside the Western tradition Is it possible to consider the history of art in a way that is not fundamentally Eurocentric In this highly readable and provocative book David Carrier a philosopher and art historian does not attempt to write a world art history himself Rather he asks the question of how an art history of all cultures could be written or whether it is even possible to do so He also engages the political and moral issues raised by the idea of a multicultural art history Focusing on a consideration of intersecting artistic traditions Carrier negotiates the way meaning and understanding shift or are altered when a visual object from one culture for example is inserted into the visual tradition of another culture A World Art History and Its Objects proposes the use of temporal narrative as a way to begin to understand a multicultural art history

Still-life Paintings from the Netherlands, 1550-1720 Alan Chong, W. Th Kloek, 1999 This stunning book presents the very best still lifes produced in the Netherlands at the height of the genre from the early beginnings in the 16th century with Pieter Aertsen and Joachim Beuckelaer to the late highlights in the 18th century with Rachel Ruysch and Jan van Huysum Despite the popularity and abundance of flower paintings in modern collections the book includes a wide range of subjects and styles from the simple to the complex the charmingly small to the opulent and extravagant and from flowers to hunting still lifes or objects in the corner of a painter's studio along with an occasional trompe l'oeil The visual delights of still life painting have a strong historical context Collectors and connoisseurs purchased them because of their realism visual appeal and relevance to their own lives Poets praised the wonders of still life paintings and evoked the power of painting to transcend the seasons and the passing of time Contemporary observers lauded the expensive and elaborate objects often on display The book therefore considers the visual achievement of the Netherlandish still life painters in the context of contemporary reactions to pictures art theory and issues of patronage Numerous artists were tempted to try their hand at still life drawn by a new and enchanting genre that allowed an artist to create independent worlds of inanimate objects on the flat surface of a picture imaginary realms that had an exceptional following among connoisseurs of the time These images continue to work their magic on present day art lovers

The Paintings of Hendrick Ter Brugghen, 1588-1629 Leonard Joseph Slatkes, Hendrik Terbrugghen, Wayne E. Franits, 2007 The Paintings of Hendrick ter Brugghen 1588-1629 is the first major study of this important early seventeenth century master since Benedict Nicolson's classic monograph of 1958 It comprises two chapters that explore ter Brugghen's development as an artist and the reception of his work among contemporaries followed by a truly monumental catalogue raisonné of ter Brugghen's 89 authentic paintings 54 pictures associated with the artist and or his workshop 141 rejected works 42 lost works and lastly 10 drawings that have been linked to ter Brugghen directly or related to his paintings Already celebrated during his lifetime and avidly collected by elite cognoscenti in the Dutch Republic and abroad ter Brugghen executed a dazzling variety of paintings ranging from Bible subjects and saints to fascinating mythological images as well as scenes of daily life including musicians Although his knowledge of paintings by Caravaggio that he had seen during his early sojourn in Rome always remained acute these experiences were continually tempered by his awareness of older Northern European artistic traditions and conventions with the result that ter Brugghen created pictures whose subject matter and style are fascinating and at times unique Until his untimely death in August of 2003 Leonard J Slatkes was Distinguished Professor of Art History at Queens College of the City University of New York NY He was an internationally renowned expert on the art of the Dutch Caravaggisti to whom he had devoted many essays books and exhibition catalogues Slatkes had begun conducting research on ter Brugghen s paintings in the 1960 s with the expectation of eventually publishing a new monograph on the artist Wayne Franits a former student of Slatkes s is currently Professor of Fine Arts at Syracuse University Syracuse NY He has authored numerous publications on seventeenth century Dutch and Flemish art Flemish Paintings of the Seventeenth Century Arthur K. Wheelock,2005 This catalogue of the Gallery s remarkable collection of Flemish paintings offers new information about each of the individual works Stylistic characteristics of the paintings have been analyzed historical circumstances related to their creation have been assessed and their provenances have been reexamined A number of the paintings have undergone conservation treatment while the technical characteristics of other works have been thoroughly studied This exhaustive research has indicated that the titles dates and even attributions of a number of works needed to be changed and the catalogue includes a concordance of these revisions BOOK JACKET
