Carson McCullers A Life:

Carson McCullers Mary V. Dearborn, 2024-02-27 The first major biography in more than twenty years of one of America's greatest writers based on newly available letters and journals V S Pritchett called her a genius Gore Vidal described her as a beloved novelist of singular brilliance Of all the Southern writers she is the most apt to endure And Tennessee Williams said The only real writer the South ever turned out was Carson She was born Lula Carson Smith in Columbus Georgia Her dream was to become a concert pianist though she'd been writing since she was sixteen and the influence of music was evident throughout her work As a child she said she'd been born a man At twenty she married Reeves McCullers a fellow southerner ex soldier and aspiring writer He was the best looking man I had ever seen They had a fraught tumultuous marriage lasting twelve years and ending with his suicide in 1953 Reeves was devoted to her and to her writing and he envied her talent she yearned for attention mostly from women who admired her but rebuffed her sexually Her first novel The Heart Is a Lonely Hunter was published in 1940 when she was twenty three and overnight Carson McCullers became the most widely talked about writer of the time While McCullers's literary stature continues to endure her private life has remained enigmatic and largely unexamined Now with unprecedented access to the cache of materials that has surfaced in the past decade Mary Dearborn gives us the first full picture of this brilliant complex artist who was decades ahead of her time a writer who understood and captured the heart and longing of the outcast

Carson McCullers Josyane Savigneau, 2001 The life of Carson McCullers 1917-1967 rivals the plot of any of her stories She had a painful small town childhood in the South and shot from obscurity to international fame at the age of 23 with the publication of her first novel The Heart is a Lonely Hunter Despite a mysterious and debilitating disease that haunted her from early adulthood she went on to write works such as The Member of the Wedding Reflections in a Golden Eye and The Ballad of Sad Cafe adapted for Broadway and the cinema She was a controversial figure whose immense emotional needs sometimes overshadowed her great charm and deep intelligence while her search for happiness led her to marry the same man twice She surrounded herself with a large cast of the brightest celebrities of her time Katherine Anne Porter Truman Capote John Huston Marlon Brando W H Auden and Tennessee Williams among others Above all she was a life force a person who had a relentless need to write and who did so despite great physical pain up until her untimely death at the age of 50 Josyane Savigneau's portrait provides a look at arguably one of the most enigmatic literary figures of the 20th century

The Lonely Hunter Virginia Spencer Carr, 2003 The Lonely Hunter is widely accepted as the standard biography of Carson McCullers Author of such landmarks of modern American fiction as Reflections in a Golden Eye and The Ballad of the Sad Caf Carson McCullers was the enfant terrible of the literary world of the 1940s and 1950s Gifted but tormented vulnerable but exploitative McCullers led a life that had all the elements and more of a tragic novel From McCullers's birth in Columbus Georgia in 1917 to her death in upstate New York in 1967 The Lonely Hunter thoroughly covers every significant event in and aspect of the writer's life her rise as a young literary sensation her emotional artistic and sexual eccentricities and entanglements her debilitating illnesses her travels in America and Europe and the provenance of her works from their earliest drafts through their book stage and film versions To research her subject Virginia Spencer Carr visited all of the important places in McCullers s life read virtually everything written by or about her and interviewed hundreds of McCullers s relatives friends and enemies The result is an enduring distinguished portrait of a brilliant but deeply troubled writer Carson McCullers, 1965 Carson Mccullers Oliver Wendell Evans, 1965 Carson McCullers.
