Cloud Eyes:

A Broken Flute Doris Seale, Beverly Slapin, 2005 A Broken Flute is a book of reviews that critically evaluate children's books about Native Americans written between the early 1900s and 2003 accompanied by stories, essays, and poems from its contributors. The authors critique some 600 books by more than 500 authors, arranging titles A to Z and covering pre-school to K-12 levels and evaluations of some adult and teacher materials. This book is a valuable resource for community and educational organizations and a key reference for public and school libraries and Native American collections.

Poetry as Discourse Antony Easthope, 2013-10-28 First published in 2002. It is easy to see that we are living in a time of rapid and radical social change. New Accents is intended as a positive response to the initiative offered by such a situation. Each volume in the series will seek to encourage rather than resist the process of change, to stretch rather than reinforce the boundaries that currently define literature and its academic study. This study presents insights into poetry as discourse, looking at language, conventional literary theory, and then a detailed look at the iambic pentameter ballads in English Poetry, looking at Shakespeare's Sonnet 73. Also included is commentary on transparency, looking at Pope's The Rape of the Lock and Romanticism in the Preface to the Lyrical Ballads and Wordsworth's Tintern Abbey. Before ending on the future of poetry, there is also a section on the Modernism of T. S. Eliot and Ezra Pound.

Skyfall Elizabeth Munro, 2014-06-01. When Cloud is expelled from Master Sky's ranger training program, the last gryphon she expects to find at her den is her old lover, Soar. Now she's the only gryphon with the skills to get inside a corrupt Calgary eyrie, and Soar needs her in more ways than one. Cloud has little choice but to accept the mission. Success will get her back in Sky's good books, but accepting Soar as her working partner will either heal her broken heart or ruin it completely. Master Soar walked out of Cloud's life when her departure to the ranger program was inevitable. She was motivated, beautiful, and too young to tie herself to someone like him. As much as it hurt, it was better to let her go. But when the Calgary eyrie is at the centre of a conspiracy to destroy his own, he's forced to play every card he has, including Cloud. When Cloud shuts him out and starts to operate on her own, he has no choice but to go in after her, risking the entire mission to get the gryphon he loves out alive.
