Carousel Of Progress:

Carousel of Progress Katherine Tanney, 2001 Meet Meredith Herman a fourteen year old expert witness to the slow unraveling of her parents marriage amid the lunacy of Los Angeles 1978 a world of bell bottoms grapefruit diets and plastic surgery Meredith is a girl of a specific time and place tackling the universal challenges of boys school and parents Her mother Leigh is a housewife suffering an excruciating and often hilarious midlife discontent a malaise that leaves Meredith s father Robert genuinely baffled As Leigh attempts to reinvent herself as a liberated lady complete with assertiveness training classes and a dalliance with an exotic artist Robert runs for cover into a hasty second marriage Through it all Meredith and Leigh struggle in a combative mother daughter relationship as wonderfully real as any in contemporary fiction Tanney s debut sparkles with pitch perfect dialogue and an astonishingly accurate sense of place This novel will take readers on a journey of belly laughs and heartbreak The Herman family s story will charm and captivate you long after you ve turned the last page Visible, Vibrant and Vital , Cadillac Beach Tim Dorsey, 2004-12-28 And busting out of Chattahoochee State Hospital without his meds The thrill killing Floridaphile needs to get to the bottom of his bookie grandad s bizarre 1964 death not to mention launch Serge Lenny s Florida Experience the new Miami specialty tour venture he s cooked up with his best brain dead druggie buddy It s all good For Serge A Storms anyway Not so much for anyone else Critical Discourse Studies and Technology Ian Roderick, 2016-06-16 Making a new contribution to the developing field of multimodal critical discourse studies Ian Roderick s book demonstrates how technologies that tend to be widely represented as innovative or as simple pragmatic solutions are always anchored in power relations and are therefore deeply ideological A series of examples analysing technologies such as robotics smart phones or bio medicine their functioning and uses as well as their representations in the media show that these are embedded within discourses that tell us about social and power relations identities and political values The book takes a tour of everyday technologies and how they are represented in different settings A Disney theme park attraction showing how technology has improved family life makes many assumptions about what is natural in terms of interpersonal relations pleasure and satisfaction Advertisements that represent robot workers inform us about the kinds of worker management relations now characterising work places Roderick looks at the way that technologies while often represented as divorced from their production and maintenance as objects of wonder need to be seen within a fabric of social relations that tends to be suppressed from how we see them as part of a wider technological fetishism Engaging with existing theories of technology the book argues that we must take a more interdisciplinary approach to avoid the pitfalls of social constructivism and technological determinism Our experiences of technologies are shaped through the relationship between knowledge practices and institutional forms My Pilgrim's Progress George W.S. Trow, 2010-10-20 In My Pilgrim's Progress George W S Trow gives us a brilliantly original and provocative look at what s happened to America in our time a guided tour of the media the politics and the personalities of the last half century by one of our most persuasive social critics This new book by the author of Within the Context of No Context might be subtitled A son of Roosevelt reads newspapers goes to the movies watches television and tells us how 1950 got to be 1998 Trow takes 1950 as the year the Old World gave way to the New Winston Churchill had just been named The Man of the Half Century by Time magazine George Bernard Shaw was still alive and so was William Randolph Hearst But before the next half decade was out the world represented by these powerful old men had disappeared To illustrate his points Trow takes the reader on a roller coaster ride through the New York Times of February 1950 from the thundering front pages where the terror of the H bomb is making its first appearance to the early sketchy amateur television listings He finds a piece of Television Personality Reportage in the paper a kind of proto People magazine profile of the TV hostess and guest Faye Emerson and notes As to World War II the Germans lost and Faye Emerson won The son of a tabloid journalist from an old New York brownstone family Trow was brought up in the Deepest Roosevelt Aesthetic half FDR and half Walter Winchell But he soon succumbed to the spell of Dwight David Eisenhower and the extraordinary ordinary qualities of Ike s era It is the thrust of Trow s book that both the Roosevelt authority and the Ike decencies are completely gone and where are they now that we need them more than ever

Tim Dorsey Collection #2 Tim Dorsey, 2014-11-11 Five acid splashed Florida capers in one great package Prepare for the road trip of a lifetime with everyone's favorite serial killer Serge A Storms in the New York Times bestselling series from the compulsively irreverent and shockingly funny Boston Globe Tim Dorsey In CADILLAC BEACH Serge A Storms the one man crime spree hits no speed bumps as he swings through Tampa Disney World and parts south before settling down in Miami Beach to team up with a former sidekick and launch his long overdue offbeat travel service Our overachieving antihero has a full to do list and he multitasks during the tourist juggernaut to battle the Palermo crime family mystery assassins local police the FBI the CIA Fidel Castro and telemarketers Serge and his customers have become the hunted hopscotching through a series of famous hotel rooms But Serge tells them not to worry He has a master plan which is about to unfold in all of its insane glory on Cadillac Beach In TORPEDO JUICE this time our lovable but maniacal hero is on a mission Stay off police radar and reinvent himself Naturally Serge makes a beeline to the Reinvention Capital of the United States the Florida Keys where nobody is who they seem to be and the freaks are the least of your worries The perfect place for Serge to blend in Unfortunately some other less likable lunatics have latched on to the same idea and the sheriff's fax machine keeps jamming because of all the APBs coming in like a storm front about to break Lurking beneath paradise are many questions Who is the mystery driver of the metallic green Trans Am The brown Plymouth Duster with Ohio plates What about the white Mercedes with tinted windows In THE BIG BAMBOO Serge finds time to resurrect his obsession with movies particularly those showcasing his beloved home state And he wants answers Why aren't more films shot here How come the ones that are stink so bad And what's up with filming Florida scenes in California Then there's the cryptic message from his grandfather Sergio telling him to go to Los Angeles to uncover a mysterious secret from the distant past It's too much of a coincidence It's fate Naturally Serge accompanied by his substance sustained sidekick Coleman must immediately hop a transcontinental flight to straighten out Hollywood once and for all In HURRICANE PUNCH our lovable under medicated dispenser of truth justice and trivia is back with a vengeance just as his cherished home state is about to take a beating from a conga line of hurricanes bearing down on the peninsula But as Serge and his burnout buddy Coleman go storm chasing bodies begin turning up at a disturbing rate even by Florida standards It looks like a serial killer is on the loose another serial killer which highly offends Serge's moral sensibilities And he vows he'll stop at nothing to unmask his thrill killing rival and make All Things Right though Coleman's triathlete approach to the sport of polyabuse binging threatens to derail the mission more completely than the entire combined Sunshine State police community could ever hope to In ATOMIC LOBSTER Serge is back with a bullet torn between homicide and souvenirs So is Coleman torn between getting hammered and getting more hammered Then there's good ol' Jim

Davenport the E Team the Diaz Brothers and Johnny Vegas the Accidental Virgin cranking up the fevered action as the pot boils over on a street called Lobster Lane It s reunion time in the Sunshine State and we re not just talking the family jamboree of that blood soaked criminal clan the McGraws whose nastiest meanest member is finally released from prison and heads south bent on revenge On top of it all the government is covering up a growing list of mysterious victims across Florida who may or may not be connected to a nefarious plot being hatched against national security

Living in the Landscape Arnold Berleant,1997 In Living in the Landscape Arnold Berleant explores new ways of thinking about how we live and might live in the landscapes that enfold us Through the concepts of aesthetic engagement and environmental continuity he proposes a new paradigm that offers a holistic approach to the meaning of place and places of meaning in our lives Although environmental aesthetics is linked in the popular mind to dramatic vistas and monumental landscapes the Grand Canyon for example Berleant is much more concerned with the commonplace settings of everyday life He argues that our active appreciation of or aesthetic engagement with the prosaic landscapes of home work local travel and recreation plays a vital role in our discovery of hidden continuities as well as pleasure and meaning in the places we inhabit Berleant begins with a general introduction to environmental aesthetics identifying the kinds of experience meanings and values it involves and describing its historical sources and the issues with which it is concerned In the rest of the book he spotlights new directions in the field as they relate to education community creativity and the sacred and provides an insightful analysis of negative environmental aesthetics Throughout he is both thoughtful and entertaining as evidenced in his extended critique of the pop post modern environment of Disney World Berleant addresses issues commonly associated with the environmental movement e g preservation pollution control and quality of life But his study draws from a wide range of disciplines and for that reason should also appeal to scholars and students interested in art and aesthetics landscape architecture and planning urban and environmental design and cultural geography as well as environmental studies
