

Cartoon

VS

Animation

Technique

Cartoons are typically hand-drawn or created using traditional animation techniques.

Animations are usually created using computer software and digital techniques.

Style

Cartoons tend to have a more simplified, exaggerated style, with characters that have oversized features and expressive facial expressions.

Animations can have a more realistic look, depending on the style and intention of the animator.

Audience

Cartoons are often aimed at children and have a lighthearted tone and subject matter.

Animations can be targeted at a wider range of audiences, from children to adults, and can cover a broader range of themes.

Length

Cartoons are usually shorter in length and can be part of a series.

Animations can range from short films to feature-length productions.

Media

Cartoons are often broadcast on television.

Animations can be distributed through a variety of mediums, including film, television, and online streaming platforms.
