Set Clear Expectations

To ensure that you foster a healthy learning environment, set clear expectations for your students by outlining what is expected of them in the plan including accepted behavioral and academic performance standards.

Physical Environment And Lesson Plans

The arrangement of physical components of the classroom, such as desks, chairs, and tables, should be displayed on a classroom management plan. Also, the associated lesson plan should include a set of criteria for evaluating student engagement and performance during class activities.

Student Jobs

Assign specific tasks or responsibilities for students to complete during class activities to foster student accountability. Each task should align with the lesson plans and classroom procedures or routines.

Emergency Procedures

A classroom management plan should also contain contingency procedures that address any emergency or significant disruptions during class such as procedures for responding to fire, tornado, floods, and student illness.
