Co Aytch Maury Grays First Tennessee Reg R. Sam Watkins,2006-08-01 Co. Aytch, Or a Side Show of the Big Show Samuel Rush Watkins,2013 Company H the Classic Civil War Memoir in a New Edition Completely Annotated for the First Time and Illustrated with Twenty Four Maps Co Aytch or a Side Show of the Big Show is perhaps the finest memoir of an ordinary Confederate soldier According to Margaret Mitchell a better book there never was Sam Watkins served in Company H of the First Tennessee Infantry for the duration of the Civil War Remarkably he survived some of the most intense battles of the war including Shiloh Chickamauga Kennesaw Mountain Atlanta and Franklin He was one of only seven of the original members of Company H when it surrendered in April 1865 Watkins s memoir was written in the winter of 1882 83 The humor and depth of writing at times rises to a level resembling Mark Twain thus twenty first century readers can still discover the everlasting treasures of Private Sam Watkins s story just as it was It is this reason that excerpts were featured frequently in Ken Burns s documentary on the Civil War However since most of Sam s original readers or some of their family members actually lived through the Civil War much of the context for the narrative was common knowledge But what was once received history has gradually disappeared and presently only specialists can fully understand and appreciate Sam s tale The chief aim for this new annotated edition of Co Aytch the first of its kind is to amplify the experience for today s readers by providing the missing context Over 240 annotations clarify the situational backgrounds personalities and terminology that might not be familiar to most readers The annotations also identify and explain errors mostly resulting from Sam s occasionally faulty memory or limited perspective Similarly twentyfour battlefield and war theater maps enable readers to track Sam s combat participation as well as his journeys while marching with the army Finally fifteen photographs and prints illustrate some of the battles people towns buildings tools of war and ruins that Sam witnessed As someone once cleverly observed It s not an adventure until something goes wrong If nothing else Sam s memoir is a foot soldier s view of the resulting horrors heroics and healing humor when war planning routinely goes awry
