Conviviality and Common Sense Thomas I. Day, 1977

Conviviality and Common Sense Thomas I. Day, 1975

Pacifism, Just War, and Tyrannicide David M. Gides, 2012-03-02 Dietrich Bonhoeffer's perplexing and controversial shift from admitted pacifism to tyrannicide has been the source of scholarly and popular inspiration and criticism How could an admitted Christian pacifist be involved in a plot to assassinate a political figure Is there a way to understand and explain this phenomenon comprehensive enough to encompass all relevant data One that takes into account the nuances of Bonhoeffer's theology and all of the elements of his complex historical and personal contexts This study attempts to offer an explanation by linking Bonhoeffer's political thinking and action with his understanding of the church world relationship and by evaluating the changes in that thought action dyad as his life progressed What emerges is a portrait of a bold and visionary thinker and political agent whose church world theology while discontinuous is consistent enough to be authentic and yet flexible enough to meet the extraordinary challenges presented by Nazism and its intrusion into the churches Gides suggests that it is actually Bonhoeffer's malleable church world thinking that ultimately distinguishes him from his theological and ecclesial contemporaries and even from the mass of German church persons and citizenry it allowed him to confront evil by reaching beyond the constraints of traditional Lutheran thinking

The Theology of Dietrich Bonhoeffer Ernst Feil, 1985 This study examines the development and interrelatedness of Bonhoeffer's hermeneutic Christology and understanding of the world

Bonhoeffer's Ethic of Discipleship Kenneth Earl Morris, 1986 This is the first book to focus on the ethic that Dietrich Bonhoeffer constructed during the 1930s an ethic he crafted while playing a key role in Christian resistance to Nazism and an ethic still inspiring politically active Christians The ethic of discipleship this study argues represents a reworking of the Christian faith so that it becomes actively opposed to totalitarianism This book therefore adds a significant dimension to the published record concerning the German theologian and pastor executed in 1945 for conspiring to assassinate Hitler and overthrow the Third Reich Since an ethic reflects more than a cognitive assent and has emotional and experiential dimensions the author's approach is socio psychological drawing on the large documentary record of Bonhoeffer's family relations Reductionism however is rejected in this book which gives social psychology parity but not superiority in understanding Bonhoeffer's religious quest and political dialogue

A Bonhoeffer Legacy A. J. Klassen, 1981 History Ruth Zerner The legacy of Dietrich Bonhoeffer John D Godsey Dietrich Bonhoeffer's way between resistance and submission J2rgen Glenth2j Christology The genuine form of transcendence Rainer Mayer The ecclesiology of Ethics and the prison writings John Wilcken Bonhoeffer and our theological existence today Henry Mottu Conviviality and common sense the meaning of Christian community for Dietrich Bonhoeffer Thomas I Day Dietrich

Bradbury, 2013-04-25 This volume offers a constructive theology of how the church is perpetually reformed and renewed within the context of life in the world New Studies in Bonhoeffer's Ethics William Jay Peck, Clifford J. Green, 1987 This study seeks to address the paradox that scholars have neglected the very work that Bonhoeffer hoped would be his crowning achievement his study of Christian ethics Concluding that the reason for this omission was not simple neglect but the uncertain state of the text contributing authors offer insights and solutions for the textual problems posed by Bonhoeffer's Ethics Journal of Theology for Southern Africa, 2007 Christ in Practice Clive Marsh, 2006 In 1944 Dietrich Bonhoeffer asked Who is Christ for us today In this theologically informed and very practical exploration of what it means to live in Christ Clive Marsh seeks to answer Bonhoeffer's question in a way that is appropriate for the 21st Century Christ in Practice refuses to locate Christ solely in the Church but finds him in the midst of contemporary life especially in the complex ethical challenges of daily living Clive Marsh considers how Christ is present today and invites us to reflect on how communal human interaction can be informed and transformed through attempting to understand this question In the process he considers how Christ and the Church relate today highlighting the decisive role to be played by the Church in society and the humility with which it needs to fulfil its task Clive Marsh argues that the point of Christology and of Christianity itself is not to interpret Christ but to live within Christ and to do so without being consumed by Church It is a passionate plea for Christians to remain faithful to a commitment to Christ as present and active in the world The Confessing Church, Conservative Elites, and the Nazi State Shelley Baranowski, 1986 Examines the close relationship between aristocratic Prussian landowners and the leadership of the Confessing Church and shows the limits of German conservative elite opposition to Nazism Contends that the opposition of the Confessing Church to the Nazi regime was highly ambiguous and argues that the so called church struggle was but a special case of class struggle The Problem of Christianity in Multi-religious Societies of Today Tord Fornberg, 1995 This text examines the situation of the Christian Church during the last quarter of the 20th century and seeks to shed light upon the relationship between the new ideas in the field of theology of religions and biblical theology Bonhoeffer's Ethics Guy Christopher Carter, 1991 Peeters 1991 Faithful Ethics According to John Calvin James B. Sauer, 1997 Including an annotated translation and commentary on John Calvin's Letter to Sachinus on Lending at Interest this volume argues that neither theoretical nor confessional approaches to the relationship of faith to ethics can adequately address the issues involved Bonhoeffer and South Africa John W. De Gruchy, 1984 In this stimulating book John W de Gruchy points out the relevance of Dietrich Bonhoeffer's thought for the life of the church in South Africa engaging in dialogue the theology of Bonhoeffer and the theology of South Africa Both Bonhoeffer s theology and his life bore witness to the need for Christians to come face to face with the pressing political and social issues of the day Bonhoeffer believed that to bear an authentic witness to Christ in certain settings was to go against the stream the church in South Africa says de Gruchy faces the challenge to be just such a troublesome witness He finds in Bonhoeffer s theology direction and liberation for the oppressed as well s for the privileged who need to be freed for others Throughout the book demonstrates the abiding significance of Bonhoeffer s theology which according to de Gruchy derives from the fact that he was before all else a witness to Jesus Christ John de Gruchy is Robert Selby Taylor Professor of Christian Studies and Director of the Religion and Social Change Unit in the University of Cape Town A Testament to Freedom Dietrich Bonhoeffer,1990 Dietrich Bonhoeffer was just thirty nine years old when he was executed by the Nazis in 1945 yet his influence on Christian theology and life has been enormous A testament to freedom takes readers along a biographical historical journey that follows Bonhoeffer through the various stages of his life and career including his final years in the underground resistance against the Nazi government and his subsequent martyrdom This book features previously untranslated writings sermons and selections from his letters spanning his entire pastoral theological career including his prison letters Theologies of War and Peace Among Jews, Christians, and Muslims Albert B. Randall,1998 This study provides analyses into the concepts of war and peace as found in the Jewish Christian and Muslim religions It covers topics such as the traditions of the Prophets theologies of war theologies of peace and unholy war H.H. Farmer's Theological Interpretation of Religion Christopher Hugh Partridge,1998 Providing a comprehensive survey of H H Farmer s writings this volume pays special attention to his treatment of the relationship of Christianity to other religions The Contribution of Carl Michalson to Modern Theology Henry O.
