Differences That Matter Feminist Theory And Postmodernism:

Differences that Matter Sara Ahmed, 1998-11-26 Differences That Matter challenges existing ways of theorising the relationship between feminism and postmodernism which ask is or should feminism be modern or postmodern Sara Ahmed suggests that postmodernism has been allowed to dictate feminist debates and calls instead for feminist theorists to speak back to postmodernism rather than simply speak on their relationship to it Such a speaking back involves a refusal to position postmodernism as a generalisable condition of the world and requires closer readings of what postmodernism is actually doing in a variety of disciplinary contexts Sara Ahmed hence examines constructions of postmodernism in relation to rights ethics subjectivity authorship meta fiction and film

Chatterji, 2002 This Book Looks At The Cinema Of Aparna Sen In A comprehensive Manner Winner Of The National Award For Best Book On Cinema 2002 The Politics of Place in Post-war Germany David Clarke, Renate Rechten, 2009 A collection of essays by British and German scholars that focuses on the case of post war Germany addressing a range of literary texts from East and West Germany as well as from the post unification period It includes the essays that highlight the particular complexities and contradictions of the experience of place in the German case Meridians ,2005 Sex in Public Lauren Rosewarne, 2007 Despite decades of feminist awareness and activism women continue to be portrayed in outdoor advertising in a limited and sexist manner The fact that in public space audiences are exposed to such images without choice renders the issue an important public policy concern Sex in Public utilises a large outdoor advertising data collection to examine the contemporary outdoor advertising landscape documenting the routine

portrayal of women as thin white young and idle This book examines why such portrayals are concerning for feminists as well as for public policy and explores the advertising self regulation systems that facilitate the display of such images This book criticises sexist outdoor advertising as a form of sexual harassment given that imagery often bearing very strong semblance to pin ups which would be outlawed in a workplace are readily displayed in public space reflecting a troublesome public policy double standard Understanding sexist outdoor advertising as a form of sexual harassment is a new framework that Sex in Public offers to understand critique and condemn such images

The Tension Between Women's Rights and Religions Sharon A. Bong,2006 This study considers how localizing the integration of rights cultures and religion challenges the universality and secularization of the rights discourse and practice globally the extent to which this bridges the disparity between the rhetoric and implementation of women s human rights in global and local contexts and the embodiment of an Asian Malaysian feminist standpoint epistemology that has the potential to reconcile the impasse of universal versus cultural relativism of rights It offers a solution to the impasse of universalism versus relativism of rights in the rhetoric and practice of women s human rights
