Bali The Split Gate To Heaven

William H. Frederick, Abdul Kohar Rony

Bali The Split Gate To Heaven:

Bali the Split Gate to Heaven, 1983 Bali Rudolf Mrázek, Bedřich Forman, 1983 Note This book is concerned with traditional Balinese culture as it existed up until the 20th century and as it still exists in the villages of Bali which are removed from the larger towns and tourist centres Balinese Worlds Fredrik Barth, 1993-04 In Balinese Worlds Fredrik Barth proposes a new model for anthropological analysis of complex civilizations that is based on a fresh synthetic account of culture and society in North Bali and one that takes full notice of individual creativity in shaping the contours of this dynamic culture In this detailed ethnography of the Northern district of Buleleng Barth rejects mainstream anthropological generalizations of Bali as a cultural system of carefully articulated parts Instead drawing on many sources including the sociology of knowledge interactional analysis postmodern thought and his own exceptionally varied field experience Barth presents a new model that actually generates variation Barth's innovative analysis of Balinese life highlights both the constructive and the disorganizing effects of individual action the constant flux of interpretation and the powerful interaction of memory and social relationships and knowledge as a cultural resource Balinese Worlds is a unique contribution not only to Balinese studies but also to the theory and methods of the anthropology of complex societies The Romance of K'tut Tantri and Indonesia Timothy Lindsey, 2008 This historiographic study of K tut Tantri alias Vannen Walker the journalist from the Isle of Man Muriel Pearson the unhappy wife and Surabaya Sue the notorious revolutionary compares her romantic and colorful autobiography Revolt in Paradise with other versions of her past including those of her fellow Bali colonists and her revolutionary comrades as well as her foes the Dutch and various intelligence organizations These alternative accounts of her past question the image of K tut Tantri as hero portraying her instead as dishonest unstable egotistical and immoral Such criticisms have overshadowed proper recognition of her role in the development of modern Indonesia both as a bohemian hotelier in between wars Bali and later as propaganda broadcaster and adviser to Indonesian revolutionary leaders including Soekarno Sutomo and Syarifuddin Focusing on the nature of biography and autobiography this book analyses K tut Tantri's self-defeating battle to use history in text and film script to define her identity and reappropriate her past An examination of the use of ideas of truth and fiction in understanding the past leads to broader consideration of the nature of history and its uses Finally an attempt is made to reconcile the deconstruction of K tut Tantri's autobiography with both an acceptance of the validity of alternative historical genres and an acceptance of the problems inherent in writing a history of a living person ABOUT THE AUTHOR Timothy Lindsey is Professor of Law Director of the Asian Law Centre Director of the Centre for Islamic Law and Society and Federation Fellow in the Law School at the University of Melbourne Hemisphere, 1984 Balinese Ritual Theatre David E.
