Cabaret Songs Vol3 4:

Ethnologia Europaea Vol. 34:2 Gösta Arvastson, Tim Butler, 2004 Ethnologia Europaea has set itself the task of breaking down not only the barriers which divide research into Europe from general ethnology but also the barriers between the various national schools within the continent With this manifesto Ethnologia Europaea was started in 1969 Since then it has acquired a central position in the international co operation between ethnologists in the various European countries in the East as well as in the West It is however a journal of topical interest not only for ethnologists but also for anthropologists social historians and others studying the social and cultural forms of everyday life in recent and historical European societies

Letters from a Life Volume 3 (1946-1951) Benjamin Britten, 2011-07-07 The third volume of the annotated selected letters of composer Benjamin Britten covers the years 1946-51 during which he wrote many of his best known works founded and developed the English Opera Group and the Aldeburgh Festival and toured widely in Europe and the United States as a pianist and conductor Correspondents include librettists Ronald Duncan The Rape of Lucretia Eric Crozier Albert Herring Saint Nicolas The Little Sweep and E M Forster Billy Budd conductor Ernest Ansermet and composer Lennox Berkeley publishers Ralph Hawkes and Erwin Stein of Boosey and the celebrated tenor Peter Pears Britten's partner Among friends in the United States are Christopher Isherwood Elizabeth Mayer and Aaron Copland and there is a significant meeting with Igor Stravinsky This often startling and innovative period is vividly evoked by the comprehensive and scholarly annotations which offer a wide range of detailed information fascinating for both the Britten specialist and the general reader Donald Mitchell contributes a challenging introduction exploring the interaction of life and work in Britten's creativity and an essay examining for the first time through their correspondence the complex relationship between the composer and the writer Edward Sackville West

Recent American Art Song Keith E. Clifton, 2008-09-05 Recent American Art Song A Guide is a reference source devoted to songs with English texts by American composers written for solo voice and piano The book focuses exclusively on art song since 1980 a substantial period largely ignored by scholars This is the first study to examine this repertory in detail and many of the songs and composers are discussed in print for the first time Keith E Clifton has examined approximately 1000 songs by nearly 200 composers Many songs employ musical idioms well beyond traditional classical styles including references to jazz musical theater rap and rock roll and several songs blur the boundaries between recital and stage works Organized alphabetically by composer entries contain complete biographical and bibliographical information with major works and links to print resources and composer websites when available In addition Clifton provides detailed information on the vocal range musical style and appropriate voice type for individual songs The book concludes with a full discography and bibliography as well as indexes listing the works by poet song cycle title voice type and level of difficulty
