Cafe Europa Life After Communism:

Café Europa Slavenka Drakulic,1999-02-01 Slavenka Drakulic is a journalist and writer whose voice belongs to the world Gloria Steinem Today in Eastern Europe the architectural work of revolution is complete the old order has been replaced by various forms of free market economy and de jure democracy But as Slavenka Drakulic observes in everyday life the revolution consists much more of the small things of sounds looks and images In this brilliant work of political reportage filtered through her own experience we see that Europe remains a divided continent In the place of the fallen Berlin Wall there is a chasm between East and West consisting of the different way people continue to live and understand the world Little bits or intimations of the West are gradually making their way east boutiques carrying Levis and tiny food shops called Supermarket are multiplying on main boulevards Despite the fact that Drakulic can find a Cafe Europa complete with Viennese style coffee and Western decor in just about every Eastern European city the acceptance of the East by the rest of Europe continues to prove much more elusive Cafe Europa Slavenka DRAKULIC,1996 Cafe Europa Slavenka DRAKULIC,1996 Café Europa Revisited Slavenka Drakulic,2021-01-05 Drakulic's composite portrait provides a clear eyed look at European values and what they really amount to The New Yorker An evocative and timely collection of essays that paints a portrait of Eastern Europe thirty years after the end of communism An immigrant with a parrot in Stockholm a photo of a girl in Lviv a sculpture of Alexander the Great in Skopje a memorial ceremony for the 50th anniversary of the Soviet led army invasion of Prague these are a few glimpses of life in Eastern Europe today Three decades after the Velvet Revolution Slavenka Drakulic the author of Cafe Europa and A Guided Tour of the Museum Of Communism takes a look at what has changed and what has remained the same in the region in her daring new essay collection Totalitarianism did not die overnight and democracy did not completely transform Eastern European societies Looking closely at artefacts and day to day life from the health insurance cards to national monuments and popular films to cultural habits alongside pieces of growing nationalism and Brexit these pieces of political reportage dive into the reality of a Europe still deeply divided

After the Fall Noemi Marin,2007 Noemi Marin analyzes famous writers from the area as critical intellectuals and exiles in order to explore the role of rhetoric and identity in writers own experiences during the long history of communism Along with examinations of discursive relationships among power culture and resistance in works by George Konrad Andrei Codrescu and Slavenka Drakulic before and after the fall of communism Marin proposes specific dimensions for a rhetoric of exile pertinent to communist Eastern and Central Europe After the Fall shows how critical works on identity culture and communist history by the writers studied aid in reconstituting a rhetoric of dissidence identity and legitimation in the public discourse of a changing Europe The book offers a unique perspective on the complex contexts of political transition in which competing public discourse on freedom and democracy intersect with totalitarian regimes unsettled societies and issues of resistance Women Travel Natania Jansz,1999 In this latest completely revised Women Travel anthology Rough Guides present a whole new crew of writers journalists travellers dreamers and escapists each with a journey to share and a tale to inspire Featuring more than 80 adventures around the world Women Travel tells you what it s like to backpack around India with your mother in tow hitch up with a shepherd in Spain set up the ultimate writers retreat on the icefields of Antarctica hang out with hippies in the Australian rainforest be crowned Queen Mother of an African village have a girls night out in the Kalahari Desert and sweat behind the scenes at a Caribbean carnival The East-West Discourse Alexander Maxwell,2011 This volume examines East West rhetoric in several different historical contexts seeking to problematise its implicit assumptions and analyse its consequences Essays on Ayn Rand's We the Living Robert Mayhew,2012-01-01 Ayn Rand remains a truly significant figure of modern philosophy Her unique vision of a world in which man relying on reason acts wholly for his own good is skillfully developed and illustrated in her most famous novels Atlas Shrugged and The Fountainhead But Rand s first novel We the Living a lesser known but no less important book offers an early form of the author s nascent philosophy the philosophy Rand later called Objectivism In the second edition Robert Mayhew once again brings together pre eminent scholars of Rand s writing The edition includes three new chapters as well as an epilogue by renowned Rand scholar Leonard Peikoff In part a history of We the Living from its earliest drafts to the Italian film later based upon it Mayhew s collection goes on to explore the enduring significance of Rand s first novel as a work both of philosophy and of literature For Ayn Rand scholars and fans alike this enhanced second edition is a compelling examination of a novel that set the tone for some of the most influential philosophical literature to follow Embattled Europe Konrad H. Jarausch,2021-09-28 A bracing corrective to predictions of the European Union s decline by a leading historian of modern Europe Is the European Union in decline Recent history from the debt and migration crises to Brexit has led many observers to argue that the EU s best days are behind it Over the past decade right wing populists have come to power in Poland Hungary and beyond many of them winning elections using strident anti EU rhetoric At the same time Russia poses a continuing military threat and the rise of Asia has challenged the EU s economic power But in Embattled Europe renowned European historian Konrad Jarausch counters the prevailing pessimistic narrative of European obsolescence with a rousing yet realistic defense of the continent one grounded in a fresh account of its post 1989 history and an intimate understanding of its twentieth century horrors An engaging narrative and probing analysis Embattled Europe tells the story of how the EU emerged as a model of democratic governance and balanced economic growth adapting to changing times while retaining its value system The book describes the EU s admirable approach to the environment social welfare immigration and global competitiveness And it presents underappreciated European success stories including Denmark s transition to a green economy Sweden s restructuring of its welfare state and Poland s economic miracle Embattled Europe makes a powerful case that Europe with its peaceful foreign policy social welfare solidarity and environmental protection offers the best progressive alternative to the military adventurism and rampant inequality of plutocratic capitalism and right wing authoritarianism

Rethinking Mamardashvili: Philosophical Perspectives, Analytical Insights ,2022-06-27 This book intends to present Mamardashvili's philosophical perspective on modern society by exemplifying in different ways its distinctive contribution to the greater philosophical landscape. The authors aim to define both Mamardashvili's place in the history of philosophy among the currents of twentieth-century European thought and in particular phenomenology and his relations with authors like Hegel, Proust, Deleuze, and Wittgenstein while identifying the basic methodological instruments and substantive concepts of his thought: language, migration, citizenship, or the freedom of complaint. The volume will be useful both for preparatory courses by supplying an introduction to Mamardashvili's thought and forming the key necessary concepts and for advanced research exigencies allowing a professional audience to discover the remarkable insights of Mamardashvili's philosophy.

Preventing Ethnic Conflict Irwin Deutscher, Linda L. Lindsey, 2005-01-01 This renamed and revised paperback edition of Irwin Deutscher's Accommodating Diversity shares most of the book's original content but reframes the work with teachers and students in mind. With introductory essays to each section written by Linda Lindsey that place the material within sociological theory, its problem-solving focus, and provocative study questions, Preventing Ethnic Conflict is an ideal supplement for courses in race, ethnicity, and social problems.

The Columbia Guide to the Literatures of Eastern Europe Since 1945 Harold B. Segel, 2003 The Iron Curtain concealed from western eyes a vital group of national and regional writers. Marked by not only geographical proximity but also by the shared experience of communism and its collapse, the countries of Eastern Europe—Poland, Hungary, Albania, Romania, Bulgaria, and the former states of Yugoslavia, Czechoslovakia, and East Germany—share literatures that reveal many common themes when examined together. Compiled by a leading scholar, the guide includes an overview of literary trends in historical context, a listing of some 700 authors by country, and an A to Z section of articles on the most influential writers.

The Red Riviera Kristen Ghodsee, 2005-11-02 This compelling ethnography of women working in Bulgaria's popular sea and ski resorts challenges the idea that women have consistently fared worse than men in Eastern Europe's transition from socialism to a market economy. For decades, western European tourists have flocked to Bulgaria's beautiful beaches and mountains; tourism is today one of the few successful and expanding sectors of the country's economy. Even at the highest levels of management, employment in the tourism industry has long been dominated by women. Kristen Ghodsee explains why this is and how women working in the industry have successfully negotiated their way through Bulgaria's capitalist transformation while the fortunes of most of the population have plummeted. She highlights how prior to 1989 the communist planners sought to create full employment for all at the same time that they steered women into the service sector The women given jobs in tourism obtained higher educations foreign language skills and experiences working with Westerners all of which positioned them to take advantage of the institutional changes eventually brought about by privatization Interspersed throughout The Red Riviera are vivid examinations of the lives of Bulgarian women including a waitress a tour operator a chef a maid a receptionist and a travel agent Through these women's stories Ghodsee describes their employment prior to 1989 and after She considers the postsocialist forces that have shaped the tourist industry over the past fifteen years the emergence of a new democratic state the small but increasing interest of foreign investors and transnational corporations and the proliferation of ngos Ghodsee suggests that many of the ngos by insisting that Bulgarian women are necessarily disenfranchised ignore their significant professional successes Public Library Catalog Juliette Yaakov,2004 More than 8 000 books in the main volume More than 2 400 new titles in annual paperbound supplements More than 2 000 analytic entries for items in collections and anthologies Click Lynn Crosbie,1997 Alciun Design Award Honourable Mention Click Gloria Steinem's familiar expression for the moment of feminist self awareness the radicalization of consciousness resonates loudly today as it did for the movement's founders Feminism was born of women's experience and for many that experience was an instant of recognition a flood of light a new and sudden sensibility What all feminists share is revelation In search of those definitive click moments poet and anthologist Crosbie asked thirty women writers journalists musicians actors academics and artists who have inscribed feminism in their lives and work to recount the experiences that made the personal political for them The result is an electrifying anthology that takes flight from a common phenomenon but overflows with feminism's diversity contrariness and truth telling strength For example British Columbia poet Lorna Crozier writes of making sense of her mother's seemingly contradictory life Toronto journalist broadcaster and activist June Callwood shares the episodes that made her a social activist American essayist and author Sallie Tisdale finds meaning in laundry For Yugoslav journalist Slavenka Drakulic liberation was the freedom to wear lipstick and heels For Egyptian scholar Nawal El Saadawi it was questioning the favouritism shown to her brother Toronto writer and editor Naomi Klein reflects on the Montreal massacre Mamie Van Doren on her role as Hollywood sex symbol and Dr Debra Orenstein fought to take her place as a seventh generation rabbi in Los Angeles New York shock rocker Kembra Pfahler for the right to be as outrageous as she dared This rich collection brings together thirty women of varying ages races religions classes and attitudes all contribute here to the feminist discourse in voices that are funny sensual radical angry honest and unforgettable Click is Lynn Crosbie's second anthology The first was the best selling and notorious collection of feminist erotica The Girl Wants To
