Coniston Copper Mines Chris Holland,2010-09-09 A guidebook to exploring the mines and relics of the copper mining industry above Coniston at Tilberthwaite Greenburn and Seathwaite Tarn above the Duddon valley at the heart of the English Lake District in Cumbria

The Oxford Companion to Family and Local History David Hey,2010-02-25 The Oxford Companion to Family and Local History is the most authoritative guide available to all things associated with the family and local history of the British Isles It provides practical and contextual information for anyone enquiring into their English Irish Scottish or Welsh origins and for anyone working in genealogical research or the social history of the British Isles This fully revised and updated edition contains over 2 000 entries from adoption to World War records Recommended web links for many entries are accessed and updated via the Family and Local History companion website This edition provides guidance on how to research your family tree using the internet and details the full range of online resources available Newly structured for ease of use thematic articles are followed by the A Z dictionary and detailed appendices which include further reading New articles for this edition are A Guide for Beginners Links between British and American Families Black and Asian Family History and an extended feature on Names With handy research tips a full background to the social history of communities and individuals and an updated appendix listing all national and local record offices with their contact details this is an essential reference work for anyone wanting advice on how to approach genealogical research as well as a fascinating read for anyone interested in the past

Rock Trails Lakeland Paul Gannon,2009 This book explains to the hillwalker in easy to understand but accurate terms how geology has shaped the landscape of the Cumbrian Lakeland A selection of fifteen guided walks are used to illustrate this in terms of what can be seen on the ground Divided into two parts Paul describes the view out over the fells and back through time charting the formation of the Cumbrian Lake District Factors such as undersea sedimentation tectonic collisions which heaved up the land great flows of lava and explosive eruptions which mixed and reformed old rock catastrophic caldera collapses freeze thaw creation of rocky tors the pointed tops of pikes carved by the flowing glaciers and the human influence of mining and tourism have all contributed to shape the landscape The second half of the book describes fifteen walks ranging from easy to challenging with revealing views of the geology

The Geotraveller Roger N. Scoon,2021-03-25 This book describes famous geosites and historical localities in national parks and conservation areas from North America East Africa and Europe The geosites include iconic landforms associated with active volcanoes canyons glaciated landscapes natural rock monoliths and rifts The potential for geotourism in historical localities such as the famous Greco Roman antiquities of Greece Italy and Turkey is emphasised Some of the geosites and historical localities provide evidence that previous civilizations coped with active geology and major climatic cycles whilst others reveal evidence of famous geological events recognized in history and ancient mythology that helped shape our current civilization The book assists tour guides and visitors both geologists and non specialists interested in geotourism by providing an understanding of geological processes in the national parks and historical locations with the assistance of photographs and simplified geological maps Minerals of Britain and Ireland A.G. Tindle,2023-11-16 Minerals of Britain and Ireland is a completely comprehensive treatment of the minerals found in Britain Ireland and the surrounding islands The Oxford Handbook of Industrial Archaeology Eleanor Casella,Michael Nevell,Hanna Steyne,2022 Through international and multi period chapters this volume explores the origins and development of industrialization from its emergence in 18th century Europe to its contemporary ubiquity It interrogates the widespread exploitation of natural resources that forged industrialization and its environmental and social legacy in our globalized world

Copper and Copper Mining R. L. Atkinson,1987 Man has won copper from the earth for about 10 000 years As pure metal it could be hammered into weapons or tools and the accidental discovery of smelting and alloying led to harder and more durable materials such as bronze and brass Copper is found in almost two hundred minerals many of them beautifully coloured and highly prized by collectors Today copper is mined all over the world in underground mines and vast open pits It is a very versatile metal it resists corrosion is malleable and ductile and is an excellent conductor of heat and electricity In the British Isles copper has been mined since pre Roman times Two areas dominated copper production during the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries Devon and Cornwall in south west England and Parys Mountain in Anglesey were the greatest copper producers in the world The spectacular ruins and the scars can still be seen Trekking in the Caucasus Ūrii Kolomiets,Aleksey Solov'ev,1994 Now that the former Soviet Union is open to Western walkers and climbers many are taking the opportunity to visit the fabled Caucasus the highest mountains in Europe British climbers knew the area a century ago and unlike the Alps the changes have been minimal 62 walks are described Some need simple climbing skills but most are straightforward In addition two routes are described to the tops of Elbruz the highest mountain in Europe This is the first modern book of its kind by Russian authors There are some very easy routes across the Main Range following good wide paths but the fact is that the central part from the Klukhor to Mamisonky passes cannot offer such a boon It does not mean you have to climb to get over the Range but you should not expect a comfortable path up to the saddle and you have to be ready for scree grass and snow slopes Not a big hardship considering the reward in calm and seclusion so rare nowadays

Current Titles in Speleology ,1982 The Local Historian ,1982 Issues for autumn 1961 include the Standing Conference for Local History Bulletin A Welsh Coast to Coast Walk John Gillham,1996 Wales mountains with their intricate network of valleys and passes provide the walker with ideal terrain for a coast to coast walk The routes in this guide from Snowdonia to the Gower Peninsular are designed for experienced walkers looking for new routes rather than following the marked ways Walking in the High Tatras (Slovakia and Poland) Colin Saunders,Renáta Nárožná,1994 The High Tatras is a range of granite and gneiss mountains between Poland and Slovakia 500 rocky summits 100 of which exceed 2000m in height Gerlach 2655m The ridges are narrow and full of gendarmes and look formidable yet as you draw closer you discern the valleys which separate the peaks and realise there are ways through A network of waymarked paths connects peaks lakes and mountain huts Many are simple walks but some are exposed via ferrata type scrambles With the collapse of the Eastern Bloc access is now a simple matter and is fully described in the book as are all major centres on both sides of the border and a comprehensive selection from the easiest to the hardest Despite its title the book also includes the slate peaks of Western Tatras and limestone peaks of the White Tatras as well as the High Tatras
