Conquered Not Defeated:

Conquered, Not Defeated: Growing Up in Denmark During the German Occupation of World War II Peter H. Tveskov, 2003-10 On the morning of April 9 1940 Peter Tveskov awoke to the roar of airplanes flying low overhead more airplanes than he had ever heard or seen before The invasion leading to the five year German occupation of Denmark had begun The Occupation was a dark and difficult time for the Danish people but for five year old Peter it was an exciting adventure that would in many ways shape both his future and that of his beloved country In CONQUERED NOT DEFEATED Tveskov blends vivid childhood memories with historical fact to tell the story of how the occupying army of the Third Reich tried and ultimately failed to crush the customs will and spirit of the Danish people It is a story not often told nor easily forgotten Includes 12 pages of rare photographs

The Homilies On The Gospel Of St. Matthew, Vol. 2 St. John Chrysostom, 1844 The Homilies of St Chrysostom on St Matthew were undoubtedly delivered at Antioch see Hom vii p 43 and probably in the latter part of the time during which he preached as a Presbyter Montfaucon considers his little mention of the sin of swearing a sign of his accomplished some reformation on that point by his previous exertions In the Homilies delivered from 386 to 388 it is a constant topic and the Homilies known to belong to that date are so numerous as scarcely leave room for such a series as the present These however contain very little to mark the period to which they belong The argument from his reference to dissensions some time gone by possible those between St Meletius and Paulinus and Evagrius in commenting on St Matt xxiii 6 is not very conclusive A modern reader must sometimes be struck with finding in St Chrysostom a kind of criticism which we are apt to think belongs only to later times His main object however is moral and he searches out with diligence both the meaning and the applications of particular passages usually concluding with an eloquent exhortation to some special virtue Some of the most remarkable of these exhortations are on the subject of Alms giving which he seems to have pressed with some success at last His calculation in Hom lxvi as to what might be done is somewhat curious In the end of Hom lxxxviii he demands a reformation as the condition of his entering on the controversy with Infidels In the next Homily he discusses the evidence of the Resurrection with nearly the same arguments as would still be used against an objector This is volume two out of two covering the homilies XLII through XC [The Homilies of S.
