

LEVELS OF CONSCIOUSNESS

All That Is | The One
Pure unmanifest energy existing in the NOW (present moment)

The REFLECTIONS of "all that is" create consciousness (self-awareness) of itself. This allows for an experience of itself from different perspectives.

LEVELS / DENSITIES OF CONSCIOUSNESS / SELF-AWARENESS

OverSoul	Simultaneous awareness of all the individual souls	Closest reflections/projections of 'The One'. They project into many individual souls.	Passion, Excitement, Imagination / Intuition / Gut feeling, Synchronicity This is the channel of communication to and fro the physical mind and the higher mind. The higher mind sends guidance in alignment with the "theme of exploration" through feelings of passion/ excitement/ creativity, and awareness of 'synchronicity in physical reality' to the physical mind to TAKE PHYSICAL ACTION on. The physical mind perceives this energy through a filter - the core belief system (negative or positive) - and takes a physical action. The higher mind sends necessary guidance in accordance with the energy of the - preferences (visualizations), beliefs, emotions, thoughts, and resulting actions of the physical state of being.
Individual Soul	Simultaneous awareness of all it's in physical incarnations. Spirit Realms	Projects into physical incarnations with a general 'theme' of exploration - based on collective experiences of previous incarnations.
Higher Mind	It experiences and navigates through all parallel realities of its physical incarnation in the present moment.	It navigates through past, present, and future (time = illusion of continuum of parallel realities) as physical beings move through space.
Exploration Blueprint	The higher mind further crystallizes a blue-print (outline) of its physical incarnation	This basic blueprint is based on the 'theme of experience' the individual soul chooses to experience. This is malleable and can be changed through heightened awareness, vision and action at the physical level.
Collective Blueprint	The collective blueprint of the experience. - locking into physical dimensions - so physical reality can be experienced.	Collective agreements about the nature of reality (game rules) of all the souls in this broad 'theme' of experience - gravity, time, touch, smell, taste, sight, air to breathe, genetic rules, etc	Physical Mind Ego personality - State of being - Behavior
Individual Blueprint	Individual agreements between the individual being and the collective blueprint	Based on the themes of exploration. - specific behaviors, unique physical and mental characteristics, preferences, etc
Beliefs	Language of the deep unconscious mind - beliefs cause the individual perspective of physical reality. Emotions, thoughts, and actions follow the beliefs.	Beliefs are definitions picked up unconsciously or consciously from life experiences, that continuously self-perpetuate to reinforce themselves.
Emotions	Language of the subconscious mind	The beliefs are translated to physical feelings that are experienced by the physical being - that can reinforce beliefs.
Thoughts	Language of the conscious mind / awareness. Thoughts primarily are in shapes and images. But due to the creation of language thoughts are in words too.	Emotions and feelings spontaneously create thoughts that reinforce them. Thoughts can also be consciously created at will.
Habits	Whereas patterns of emotions, thoughts, actions - behavior stem from core beliefs.	Habitual behaviors are fortified through repetition. Once habits come into awareness - it is now a choice.
