Consent to Kill Vince Flynn, 2007-10-09 For ten years Mitch Rapp has fought on the frontline of the War on Terror His bold actions have saved the lives of thousands but in the process his list of enemies has grown inexorably There are even those within his own government who would like to see him eliminated Thousands of miles away the influential father of a dead terrorist demands retribution for the death of his son He wants Rapp dead and his hate filled plea has found sympathetic ears In the tangled duplicitous world of espionage there are those even among America s allies who feel Rapp has grown too effective They ve been looking for an excuse to eliminate America s No 1 counterterrorism operative and they ve decided to seize the chance The Hunter has become the Hunted A tragedy of unimaginable proportions is about to befall Mitch Rapp and he must use all his cunning skill and ruthless determination to stay alive and seek vengeance against the traitor who would bring him down

To Do, To Die, To Reason Why Victor Tadros, 2020-06-18 To Do To Die To Reason Why offers a new account of the ethics of war and the legal regulation of war It is especially concerned with the conduct of individuals including whether they are required to follow orders to go to war what moral constraints there are on killing in war what makes people liable to be killed in war and the extent to which the laws of war ought to reflect the morality of war Victor Tadros defends a largely anti authority view about the morality of war and notable moral constraints on killing in war such as the Doctrine of Doing and Allowing and a version of the Doctrine of Double Effect However he argues that a much wider range of people are liable to be harmed or killed in war than is normally thought to be the case on grounds of both causal involvement and fairness And it argues that the laws of war should converge much more closely with the morality of war than is currently the case
