Cs Parnell:

C.S. Parnell Paul Bew,1980 Words of the Dead Chief Charles Stewart Parnell,2009 Words of a Dead Chief is an important text from a critical period in Irish nationalist politics Published in 1892 shortly after Charles Stewart Parnell s death it is a collection of extracts from his speeches including all of the best known ones There is an unmistakable political even propagandist dimension to the publication It was written for a nationalist audience and particularly for followers of Parnell Wyse Power explains in her preface that the purpose of her humble memento was to keep the principles which Parnell enunciated before the minds of Irish Nationalists for whom there should be a rule of political faith and conduct She aimed to select such passages as were most characteristic of Parnell of most vital importance for nationalists to study remember and take for guidance This edition includes the original introduction by C S Parnell s sister Anna The book was an immediate bestseller It was easily accessible to a general audience and proved highly influential but it went quickly out of print

Charles Stewart Parnell R. F. Foster,2010-10 Charles Stewart Parnell has traditionally been studied from the political angle but here Foster places him in the social context of 19th century Irish gentry and studies him in relation to his remarkable family Beginning with a survey of the social milieu into which Parnell was born he traces the foundation of the family s eminence in Irish life and explores the ways in which Parnell s connections exerted a much more decisive influence than has previously been realised Foster s conclusions supply a new appreciation of major aspects of Parnell s political life and of the motivations which governed his ostensibly contradictory personal life which ended in the Mrs O Shea divorce scandal the ruin of his career and of Irish hopes of independence for a generation This study gives us a new picture of the man and of his world A very valuable pioneering study Conor Cruise O'Brien Charles Stewart Parnell John Haney,1989 A biography of an Irish Nationalist leader who fought hard for home rule for Ireland
