Chinese Spatial Strategies:

Chinese Spatial Strategies Jianfei Zhu, 2004 How do the Chinese design a space What are the similarities and differences between spaces designed for palaces and cities How were the extension of the Great Wall the reopening of the Grand Canal and the building of Beijing interrelated By closely examining the buildings of Imperial Beijing 1420 1911 this book seeks to answer these questions by exploring whether there is a generic approach to spatial disposition in the Chinese tradition Chinese Spatial Strategies considers spatial design on many levels and in different aspects including The geo political design of a map of Asia The layout of the city as a representation of imperial ideology The city as a social realm of interrelations between the central authority and local urban society The Forbidden City as an apparatus of power A comparison between European visual compositions and the aesthetic composition of Beijing Drawing upon recent work in social theory the author provides a spatial and political analysis of the Forbidden City and a realistic account of Imperial Beijing This book challenges the convention of formal description of Chinese cities and will appeal to all those with an interest in Chinese buildings and architecture

Chinese Spatial Strategies Jianfei Zhu, 2004 By closely examining the buildings of Imperial Beijing 1420 1911 this book seeks to answer these questions by exploring whether there is a generic approach to spatial disposition in the Chinese tradition Drawing upon recent work in social theory the author provides a spatial and political analysis of the Forbidden City and a realistic account of Imperial Beijing

Chinese Spatial Strategies Jianfei Zhu, 2004-08-02 Chinese Spatial Strategies presents a study of social spaces of the capital of Ming Qing China 1420 1911 Focusing on early Ming and early and middle Qing it explores architectural urban and geographical space of Beijing in relation to issues of history geopolitics urban social structure imperial rule and authority symbolism and aesthetic and existential experience At once historical and theoretical the work argues that there is a Chinese approach to spatial disposition which is strategic and holistic Drink With Me 1966 The One Armed Swordsman 1967 A Touch of Zen 1970 71 Hero 2002 House of Flying Daggers 2004 and Curse of the Golden Flower 2006 Shopping Malls and Public Space in Modern China Nicholas Jewell,2016-03-03 China's rise as an economic superpower has been inescapable. Statistical hyperbole has been accompanied by a plethora of highly publicized architectural forms that brand the regeneration of its increasingly globalized urban centres. Despite the sizeable body of literature that has accompanied China's modernization, the essence and trajectory of its contemporary cityscape remains difficult to grasp. This volume addresses a less explored aspect of China's urban rejuvenation: the prominence of the shopping mall as a keystone of its public spaces. Here, the presence of the built form most representative of Western capitalism's excess is one that makes explicit the tensions between China's Communist state and its ascent within the free market. This book examines how these interrelationships are manifested in the culturally hybrid built form of the shopping mall and its role in contesting the public space of the modern Chinese city. By viewing these interrelationships as collisions of global and local narratives, a more nuanced understanding of the shopping mall typology is explored. Much architectural criticism has failed to address the levels of meaning implicit within the shopping mall, yet it is a building type whose public popularity has guaranteed its endurance. Consequently, if architecture is to remain a relevant social art, a more holistic understanding of this phenomenon will be indispensable to the process of adapting to globalizing forces. This examination of Chinese shopping malls offers a timely and relevant case study of what is happening in all our cities today. The Arts of the Grid Liora Bigon, Nava Shaked,2021-10-04 This is the first collection of interdisciplinary scholarship to expand on gridded modalities with a strong affinity to the arts. It seeks to inspire new avenues of research by exploring a horizon of gridded relationships among humans, between humans and the environment, and between human and non-human actors. By bringing together philosophical themes and applied practices, the volume traces a genealogy of the grid as an exercise in grasping its inherent complexity and incomplete quality. A collective effort by a group of researchers, practitioners, and designers, it promotes an understanding of gridded modalities as complex networks that interact with other networks, generating new meanings and reflecting changes in thought. Modernizing Functions in Traditional Building Typology of Courtyard Space (Beijing, China) Chunchun Tao,2006 The Book of Politics Michael Dutton,2024-07-05 In The Book of Politics, Michael Dutton offers an affective theorization of the political and a political theorization of affect. Drawing on Western and Chinese social theory and practice, Dutton rethinks Carl Schmitt's insistence that the political can be thought of only within the antagonistic pairing of friend and enemy. Dutton shows how the power of the friend-enemy binary must be understood by conceptualizing the political as the channeling, harnessing, and transforming of affective energy flows in relation to that binary. Given this affective nature of politics, Dutton contends that to rethink the political means moving away from a political science toward an art of the political. Such an art highlights fluidity and pulls away from Eurocentric political theory, requiring a conceptualization of the political as global. He juxtaposes ancient Chinese cosmology, medicine, and Maoism.

against the monuments of early capitalist modernity such as the Crystal Palace and the Eiffel Tower to highlight the differences in political investments and intensities From the Chinese revolution to the global rise of right wing movements Dutton rethinks politics in the contemporary world Mapping Spatial Patterns of Place-making Among Vietnamese Americans Anh Mai Nguyen,2008 China Review International ,2008 Building the Chinese Work Unit Duanfang Lu,2003 Nation, Style, Modernism Jacek Purchla,Comité international d'histoire de l'art,2006 Modernity with Chinese Characteristics Anne-Marie Broudehoux,2002 The Cultural Politics of Graffiti in Beijing Max D.
