Animals We Know:

Plants, Animals, People, Aliens Marie I. George, 2025-07-25 Aristotle famously maintains in his treatise On the Soul that there are three kinds of living things: plants, animals, and humans, and he speaks of each kind as having a soul. St. Thomas Aquinas adopts these same views. Nowadays, however, many thinkers reject them on the grounds that they are incompatible with modern science. Molecular biology is seen as affording a superior way of categorizing life forms. Evolutionary biology appears to have established that humans are simply primates with adaptations somewhat different from other primates. Plant physiology uncovering plants' directional responses to a wide variety of different stimuli provides reason to think that plants sense light, pressure, odor, pathogens, etc. In which case, plants are simply non-mobile animals similar to coral. Neuroscience, by showing the dependency of thought, choice, perception, and emotion on the central nervous system, especially on the brain, seems to have eliminated any need to posit a soul. Plants, Animals, People, Aliens addresses these and a variety of other science-based claims about living things by bringing Aristotelian Thomistic teachings to bear upon them. While not a systematic work, it both treats some of the most hotly debated philosophical questions concerning living things, such as what it means to be alive, as well as treating questions less often raised by philosophers, such as whether animals have a theory of mind. Though geared primarily to those conversant with the Aristotelian Thomistic tradition, many of its key concepts are traced back to experiences that we all share in common, thus rendering these concepts intelligible, if not convincing, to those with scientific and other backgrounds who are curious about this philosophical approach to living things. The author strives to show how Aristotelian Thomistic philosophy and science complement one another by sketching out the fuller understanding of the living realm that the two together provide. The book's final section considers the possibility and the likelihood that embodied rational beings exist elsewhere in our universe. Here, theological arguments drawn from the Christian faith are presented alongside philosophical and scientific arguments. This section closes with a theological discussion of the disputed question of whether extraterrestrials, were they to exist, should be baptized.

Feral Children and Clever Animals Douglas K. Candland, 1995-10-26 In this provocative book, Douglas Candland shows that as we begin to understand the way animals and non-speaking humans think, we hold up a mirror of sorts to our own mental world and gain profound insights into human nature. Weaving together diaries, contemporary newspaper accounts, and his own enlightening commentary, Candland brings to life a series of extraordinary stories. He begins with a look at past efforts to civilize feral children. We meet Victor, the Wild Boy of Aveyron, now famous as the subject of a Truffaut film; Kaspar Hauser, raised in a cell, civilized, and then assassinated; and the Wolf Girls of India, found early this century huddled among wolf pups in a forest den. They were originally believed to be ghosts by superstitious villagers who nearly shot them as they were being captured. In each case, it was hoped that the study of these children would help clarify the age-old nature/nurture debate, but as Candland shows, so much of the information revealed was really only a projection of beliefs previously held by the investigating scientists. Candland then turns to clever animals We learn how the investigation of Clever Hans the German horse who could calculate square roots proved to be a first step in the direction of behaviorism researchers found that Hans was being tipped off by the subtle and unwitting body language of his owner and other observers who would bend almost imperceptibly at the waist with every hoof beat and stand erect when the correct count was reached And Candland discusses the many attempts to communicate with our closest neighbor the apes We read of Richard Lynch Garner s 1892 experiment living with chimpanzees in Gabon he taught one to say the French word feu and of Gua raised by W N and L A Kellogg alongside their own son Donald and of the latest successes of teaching sign language to such precocious apes as Sarah Sherman Austin and Koko Throughout Candland illuminates the boldest and most intriguing efforts yet to extend our world to that of our fellow creatures And he shows that in the end our effort to make contact is a reflection of the way in which we as a species create and order our universe Humans have long shown a wish to connect with the silent minds around them In assembling and interpreting the compelling tales in this book Candland offers us a new understanding not only of the animal kingdom but of the very nature of humanity and our place in the great chain of being

Animals' Defender and Zoophilist ,1911 Animals in Heaven- Fantasy or Reality Arch Stanton,2006-06-02 Animals have been with us since the state of existence or being The bible tells us God created the animal kingdom for his pleasure When God created the heaven and earth and all life that exist he obviously saw a need for animals or they would not be here Why God created them in the shapes and forms as they were we do not know the choice was his and as I mentioned He chose to do so in a way that pleases him Animals have a mind that gives them the ability to think and have feelings Animals have a certain intelligence we do not possess such as an internal guidance system Both dogs and cats have this ability and I would imagine there are other animals as well God created everything with a purpose and a need the animals kingdom is one such example Many people believe God s purpose for animals is to serve humankind and upon death they are to perish with no possible chance for eternal life However does the bible teach this In the first chapter of the book of Genesis the bible tells us God considered the animals a creation that was very good he was pleased with them Many people consider the life of an animal as having a very small worth To them an animal just lives and dies Many people have the attitude of so what The bible tells us God doesn't care for an attitude such as this because he values the life of his animals very much Throughout the entire bible the information found pertaining to the animal kingdom is very precise The bible tells us the animals are to be forever God had this intention when he created them and this application of thought remains today and forever The bible never mentions mankind alone is to receive eternal life How different would our lives be without animals There would be no pets for those who are lonely and without family There would be no zoos for family outings There would be no circus acts with animals There would be no dog as a best friend There would be no Seeing Eye dogs There would be no animals to alert their owners of an ever present danger during the night such as fires burglars etc I believe we simply overlook the fact there is a purpose for all of God's creatures The purpose for this book is to reveal the truth in what the bible tells about the animal kingdom We need to know God's purpose for them The bible explains in detail God's plan for his animals even after death God wants us to know about them or he would never have emphasized their importance in his word Many people are reluctant to discuss the animal kingdom from a biblical point of view I find this strange to say the least God has included them in his written word but many ministers will say very little if anything about them The scriptures in this book are from the King James Bible What the bible tells us is 100% accurate and lest we never forget God simply made no mistakes in his word The bible is never contradictory We will read scriptures that clearly explain that animals will be in heaven and why God wants them to be there with us If we had the power to give our pet's eternal life would we want the life of our animals to be temporal If God loves his animals more than we could ever love them shouldn't this type of love indicate his love for them is tremendous Since we know God can give animal's eternal life could be there any single reason to give them life that would be only temporary First we should know the bible is not dull dismal or neutral The bible is not an area between two extremes having mingled characteristics of both of them a situation in which there are no clear cut distinctions The interpretations of scriptures have been defined several ways over the years and this has caused confusion in many churches We will read scriptures about the animal kingdom that many of you may not know are in the bible We will read scriptures that are clearly stated to mean one thing and one thing only and that is Animals are to be in heaven By the time you have finished this book you will have a better understanding for the purpose of the animal kingdom You may then decide if the scriptures do indeed tell us animals have a soul do they have a spirit did God create them with a purpose in this life is he going to give them eternal life With God's help you will decide For more information please visit www.dutchman3d.com The Literary Digest Edward Jewitt Wheeler, Isaac Kaufman Funk, William Seaver Woods, Arthur Stimson Draper, Wilfred John Funk, 1917 Christian Faith and Life, 1926 Annual Report Nebraska.
