Morgan,1980-01-01      A Child Alone with Strangers Philip Fracassi,2022-10-25 Fracassi s novel hits me like a cross between McCammon and 80s King Might be one of them summer blockbusters readers love Laird Barron author of Worse Angels A Child Alone with Strangers starts out as a slow burn procedural with supernatural elements and inexorably cranks itself into a pulse pounding symphony of eldritch horrors and all too human violence Philip Fracassi is the best sort of horror writer one who is unafraid to hunt for light in even the darkest places Shaun Hamill author of A Cosmology of Monsters When young Henry Thorne is kidnapped and held prisoner in a remote farmhouse surrounded by miles of forest he finds himself connecting with a strange force living in the woods using that bond to wreak havoc against his captors Unknown to the boy however is that this ancient being has its own reasons for wanting the interlopers gone there is something hidden beneath the house tucked away in the dark damp root cellar waiting for its return      The Kindness of Strangers John Boswell,1998-11 Using a wide variety of sources John Boswell examines the evidence that parents of all classes gave up unwanted children exposing them in public places donating them to the church or delivering them in later centuries to foundling hospitals He shows what happened to these children and he illuminates the moral codes that condoned abandonment      Strangers in the Gale Joe Occhipinti,2012-01-27 An unconscious girl found on a clump of floating kelp radically complicates Bernardo s life By all accounts Ondas is supposed to be uninhabited Why is the League government hiding the existence of the seafarers In his quest for answers the young biologist becomes entangled in a broader conflict that is about to take a recently colonized world to war Bernardo is swept into a secret world of rebellion and espionage and uncovers a genocidal policy by his government directed against the child s aboriginal culture On this water world fraught with ubiquitous storms Bernardo a few of his colleagues two enslaved technicians and an enigmatic mystic fight for the girl s survival and that of her people discovering a long forgotten truth that will shake the foundations of worlds      The Children of Strangers Larissa MacFarquhar,2015 Sue and Hector Badeau adopted twenty children who needed a home but there were always more Sue Hoag Badeau and Hector Badeau grew up in Barre Vermont The article provides background information on the Badeaus as well as interviews with some of the children they adopted now adults      Everyman's Child Sophie Irene Loeb,1920      The Care of Dependent, Neglected and Wayward Children Anna Garlin Spencer,Charles Wesley Birtwell,1894      Not Everyone Is Nice Frederick Alimonti,Ann Tedesco,2021-08-30 A manual for parents and other caregivers to help children learn caution with strangers without terrifying them      Spiritual Reflections for Every Day in the Year: with Morning and Evening Prayers Thomas Goyder,1849      The Scarlet Letter ,1894      Publications of the American Jewish Historical Society ,1916      Publications of the American Jewish Historical Society American Jewish Historical Society,1915      Small Strangers Melissa R. Philipson-Samoscz Isidore Singer,1905 Childhood Social Development Harry McGurk,2022-02-22 This book provides an account of research in action and debate in progress in a selection of areas of childhood social development where significant progress is underway The chapters are written by an eminent group of British and American developmental psychologists each of whom has made primary contributions to research in the areas covered in the volume The contributors were invited to reflect upon the current scene in social developmental research and to develop their own distinctive viewpoint and contribution to the field The book addresses issues in social development from infancy to adolescence The topics examined include interactions between biological and social factors in social development sex role development the development of friendships the role of peer interaction in social and cognitive development and the influence of cultural artifacts in the social and cognitive development of children Although each chapter is concerned with a different aspect of social development there are a number of themes that recur throughout the volume One concerns the nature of social development the acquisition of social understanding and the development of social skills are not individual achievements of children reared in isolation Rather they are the outcome of social processes in which the developing child engages sometimes in an unequal partnership with experienced adults at other times in more equal partnership with peers and playmates In both cases the development change is a constructive outcome A second recurrent theme is a concern for developmental researchers to take fuller account than they may traditionally have done of the nature of the cultural settings in which social development occurs Different cultures have different customs and artifacts and these can constrain development in different ways This issue is considered throughout the book and is the specific focus of the final chapter Protestant missionary children's lives, c.1870-1950 Hugh Morrison,2024-03-05 Protestant missionary children were uniquely empire citizens through their experiences of living in empire and in religiously formed contexts This book examines their lives through the related lenses of parental institutional and child narratives To do so it draws on histories of childhood and of emotions using a range of sources including oral history It argues that missionary children were doubly shaped by parents concerns and institutional policy responses At the same time children saw their own lives as both ordinary and complicated Literary representations boosted adult narratives Empire provided a complex space in which these children navigated their way between the expectations of two if not three different cultures The focus is on a range of settings and on the early twentieth century Therefore the book offers a complex and comparative picture of missionary children s lives The National Union Catalog ,1958
