All Consuming Images:

All Consuming Images Stuart Ewen, 1988-11 Depicts the evolution of an increasingly style conscious society from the time when style was an exclusive prerogative of aristocratic elites to today when it fascinates millions All Consuming Images Stuart Ewen, 1999 Winning Women's Hearts and Minds Diana Cucuz, 2023-01-31 Throughout the Cold War Soviet citizens had limited access to US life and culture Amerika a glossy Russian language magazine similar to Life provided a rare exception Produced by the United States Information Agency USIA America's first peacetime propaganda organization Amerika was used to influence the Soviet public and convince women in particular that an American style consumer culture and conservative gender norms could better their lives Winning Women's Hearts and Minds relies on USIA archives issues of Amerika and American women's magazines such as the Ladies Home Journal to show how during the postwar period USIA officials deployed idealized images of American women as happy fulfilled and feminine wives mothers and homemakers This study analyses how Amerika was used to appeal to Soviet women Portrayed in the US media as babushkas they were considered unfeminine overworked and deprived of consumer goods and services by a repressive regime Diana Cucuz provides a gendered analysis of the USIA and of Amerika whose propaganda campaign relied heavily on postwar conservative gender norms and images of domestic contentment to convey positive messages about the American way of life in the hopes of undermining the Soviet regime Winning Women's Hearts and Minds sheds light on the significance of women gender and consumption to international politics during the Cold War Anti-Disciplinary Protest Julie Stephens, 1998-04-13 The sixties were a time when anti disciplinary politics blurred the boundaries between the political and the aesthetic and according to some critics the time when the possibility for revolution died In this book first published in 1998 Stephens questions the frameworks which inform commonplace understandings of this period arguing that the most distinctive forms of sixties protest are often marginalized or excluded from view She looks at the problematic ways in which sixties radicalism has been narrativised and critically evaluates the modernist and postmodern impulses that can be discerned in the anti disciplinary protest of the time Stephens develops a new theoretical framework for conceptualizing the relationship between the sixties and later political and theoretical developments Drawing on broad ranging lively and often rare sources this is a provocative contribution to contemporary social theory and cultural studies The Shaken and the Stirred Stephen Schneider, Craig N. Owens, 2020-09-01 Over the past decade the popularity of cocktails has returned with gusto Amateur and professional mixologists alike have set about recovering not just the craft of the cocktail but also its history philosophy and culture The Shaken and the Stirred features essays written by distillers bartenders and amateur mixologists as well as scholars all examining the so called Cocktail Revival and cocktail culture Why has the cocktail returned with such force Why has the cocktail always acted as a cultural indicator of class race sexuality and politics in both the real and the fictional world Why has the cocktail revival produced a host of professional organizations blogs and conferences devoted to examining and reviving both the drinks and habits of these earlier cultures The Post-Screen Through Virtual Reality, Holograms and Light Projections Jenna Ng,2025-10-01 Screens are ubiquitous today Yet contemporary screen media eliminate the presence of the screen and diminish the visibility of its boundaries As the image becomes indistinguishable from the viewer s surroundings this unsettling prompts re examination of how screen boundaries demarcate Through readings of three media forms Virtual Reality holograms and light projections this book develops new theories of the surfaces on and spaces in which images are displayed Interrogating contemporary contestations of reality against illusion it argues that the disappearance of difference reflects shifted conditions of actuality and virtuality in understanding the human condition These shifts further connect to the current state of politics by way of their distorted truth values corrupted terms of information and internalizations of difference The Post Screen Through Virtual Reality Holograms and Light Projections thus thinks anew the image s borders and delineations evoking the screen boundary as an instrumentation of today s intense virtualizations which do not tell the truth In the process a new imagination for images emerges for a gluttony of the virtual for new conceptualizations of object and representation materiality and energies media and histories real and unreal for new understandings of appearances dis appearances replacement and replacement the post screen Faking the News Ryan Skinnell,2018-05-29 Donald J Trump s speaking and writing invite passionate reactions maybe he s a bluecollar billionaire hero who speaks the language of the common man or maybe he s a gleefully illiterate tremendously unqualified idiot Whatever the case he was persuasive enough to get himself elected President of the United States and he s been persuasive enough to keep a majority of his supporters behind him In Faking the News What Rhetoric Can Teach Us About Donald J Trump eleven prominent rhetoric experts explain how Trump s persuasive language works Specifically the authors explain Trump s persuasive uses of demagoguery anti Semitism alternative facts populism charismatic leadership social media television political slogans visual identity image comedy and humor and shame and humiliation Faking the News is written for readers who may not know anything about rhetoric so each chapter explains a feature of rhetoric and uses that lens to illuminate Trump s rhetorical accomplishments Specifically about how he has used and still uses language symbols and even style to appeal to the people in his various audiences The Death Of Discourse Ronald K L Collins,David M Skover,2019-09-12 In this innovative book the authors persuasively argue that the First Amendment to the Constitution has risen in the late twentieth century like an ill guided individual with knife in hand to murder a longstanding tradition of fine and meaningful discourse in the United States We are bombarded with the cacophony of advertisement the luridity of pornography and the pointlessness of prime timepoor substitutes for intelligent consideration of ideas In this innovative book the authors persuasively argue that the First Amendment to the Constitution has risen in the late twentieth century like an ill guided individual with knife in hand to murder a long standing tradition of fine and meaningful discourse in the United States What has died is the essential kind of political discourse which promotes democracy informs citizens enlivens debate and carries reason method and purpose Instead we are bombarded with the cacophony of advertisement the luridness of pornography and the pointlessness of prime time With satirical spirit and wit yet to a very serious purpose the narrative of this lively study calls upon many of the very tricks it criticizes The text is augmented by amusing tales poetry tv zaps eyebites and boxes of aphorisms resonating between high and low culture between Plato and Geraldo and Madonna and Mahler to make its points the discussion reveals how discourse in contemporary America has lost its integrity and its soul Media and Cultural Theory Stephen Hill, Bevis Fenner, 2010 Race and Place in Birmingham Bobby M. Wilson, 2000 This pioneering book explores the implications of postmodernism for the black community through an analysis of the civil rights and neighborhood movements in Birmingham Alabama Grounded not only in class struggle the Civil Rights Movement was tied to the politics of racial identity the neighborhood movement to the politics of place identity Bobby M Wilson critically examines these two movements which together transformed race and place in Birmingham He shows that although the civil rights struggle and neighborhood empowerment served a valuable purpose they cannot now overcome post Fordist forces of domination and exclusion Successful political movements the author argues must venture beyond the politics of identity and difference based on race and neighborhood The Pacific Region Peter Alexis Gourevitch, 1989 Two main issues dominate the debates surrounding the Pacific region today prosperity and peace Why have parts of the Asian Pacific side grown so quickly while other parts of the Pacific much of Latin America Africa and other areas have not How have these changes altered the international system of security Political and Social Science offers an in depth examination of these debates as well as providing a better understanding of the changes taking place within the region and giving rise to new ways of integrating classic variables into arguments that permit deeper analysis Historic Preservation & the Imagined West Judy Mattivi Morley, 2006 She draws on extensive interviews city council proceedings and historic plats and photographs to construct a detailed picture of how these districts originally looked and were used how they were renovated and to what ends they were marketed Laurie Simmons Laurie Simmons, Kate Linker, 2005 Laurie Simmons is one of the first contemporary American photographers to create elaborately staged narrative photographs Using dolls to act out piquant scenarios within specially constructed environments she has slyly commented on contemporary culture while recapturing a sense of her childhood in an era she recalls as both beautiful and lethal Populated by housewives ventriloquists dummies and familiar objects in unfamiliar guises her diverse tableaux are often infused with bittersweet nostalgia yet charged with a disquieting sense of dislocation Notes on Modern Irish Literature, 2001 Whitaker's Book List, 1991 The New Propaganda James E. Combs, Dan D. Nimmo, 1993 Claims to Fame Joshua Paul Gamson, 1992 Making Sense Bob Coleman, 2006 This cross disciplinary reader gives students the opportunity to read and write about significant issues across the arts and sciences and to explore how knowledge is constructed and communicated Thirty eight contemporary essays are preceded by introductory chapters on writing and reading and are followed by assignment sequences that juxtapose three or more essays with a central theme Discussion library and Internet research and writing activities accompany each reading While the essays are arranged in alphabetical order the text also offers alternative thematic and disciplinary tables of contents The Second Edition of Making Sense presents works by well known authors such as Annie Dillard Gloria Anzaldua a bell hooks Lawrence Lessig Ralph Ellison and Nancy Sommers as well as selections by lesser known writers from a variety of fields New Students will be engaged by the variety of new readings by writers such as Dorothy Allison and Marita Sturken New images also appear throughout the text ranging from Depression era photos accompanying Dorothy Allison's essay to advertisements accompanying Stuart Ewen's essay on consumer style New Pre reading questions What Do You Know and What Do You Expect to Discover guide students to uncover what they already know about a topic so they can move with more confidence into their reading of the text These questions also help students anticipate key ideas and develop their own framework for understanding the readings New Updated post reading questions are now arranged in the following four categories Reading Rereading and Analysis Responding through Writing Building an Interpretation Going Further Learning from Other Sources and Applying What You've Learned New Ten new assignment sequences invite students to read critically and to practice their revision skills Topics include History and Memory with selections from bell hooks Ralph Ellison and Julie Charlip and Images and Words with selections from Arlie Hochschild Richard Florida and Yi Fu Tuan This edition offers two appendices Making Sense through Research and Writing in the Disciplines a collection of five essays by academics and professionals on the value of effective writing in a variety of fields

Communications and Cultural Analysis Michael Warren, 1992-08-30 This book explores how culture functions and intersects with religious groups particularly Christians It explores the way electronic communications especially film and television shape our world of meaning Using the theories of British thinker Raymond Williams as his framework Warren focuses on the actual process by which versions of reality are produced the production of signification He also draws on the ideas of Paulo Freire pointing out that cultural agency happens when individuals decide to exercise some judgment and control over the kinds of cultural material they will accept or resist If culture is a signifying system says Warren then religion is too Contrasting values from the wider culture create dilemmas for those trying to follow a religious life Choices either mirror the wider culture or reflect a culture of resistance Warren seeks to help the reader develop the skills of cultural analysis by paying attention to the images that support culture examining the life structures that support culture and paying attention to how any particular aspect of culture is produced Beyond all this however the author calls for a stance of resistance to all that violates human dignity and unity all the aspects of culture that persons with high religious ideals cannot accept

A Do-It-Yourself Dystopia Steven Carter, 2000 The essence of life in an oligarchy like George Orwell presents in 1984 is that freedom of choice is virtually non-existent But what happens when so many trivial and meaningless choices inundate a culture such as our own and freedom itself becomes devalued In A Do It Yourself Dystopia through a variety of essays Steven Carter addresses this and other issues in a wide ranging search for hidden oligarchies of the American self
