American Photographers:

The American Amateur Photographer, 1893 The Last Photographic Heroes Gilles Mora, 2007-12-01 The photography that Americans invented in the sixties and seventies was as innovative bold and vital as their music In the wild years between the publication of Robert Frank's landmark The Americans in 1958 and the discovery of the postmodernist Cindy Sherman in the early 1980s the photographers featured in this book embarked on their own personal quests for an independent and unique photographic language that would redefine the scope and content of documentary photography as well as the expressive potential of the photographic image Real heroes of a challenging dynamic modernity they believed in a medium with endless possibilities and devoted themselves with an abundance of creative energy to reinvigorating it in a wide range of inventive ways Gilles Mora introduces us to the work of these heroic photographers and to the curators gallery owners critics and collectors who facilitated their rise in the art world and the marketplace Members of an authentic artistic community inspired by the legacy of Walker Evans they include major figures such as Garry Winogrand Lee Friedlander Diane Arbus Les Krims Ralph Eugene Meatyard Bill Owens Robert Adams Henry Wessel Jr William Eggleston and Joel Meyerowitz along with the gallery owner Lee D Witkin and the great MoMA curator John Szarkowski This generation of photographers knew it was remarkable Today with Giles Mora as a guide we can look back on it with greater appreciation The Last Photographic Heroes offers a personal perspective on this lively and engaging chapter in modern photography presenting not only a critique but also a veritable visual anthology of major photographic works and artists from dust jacket

American Independents Sally Eauclaire, 1987 Fotografisk billedv rk 18 amerikanske fotografer billedberetninger om USA i dag Fourteen American Photographers Renato Danese, John R. Gossage, 1975 Photographic Times and American Photographer, 1894 American Photographers at the Turn of the Century, 1993 America Through the Lens Martin W. Sandler, 2005-08 Highlights the work of 12 photographers whose photos have changed the nation Reflections in Black Deborah Willis, Kalia Brooks, 2025-11-18 TWENTY FIFTH ANNIVERSARY EDITION The acclaimed collection of Black photography now featuring more than one hundred photographs from twenty first century artists fundamentally redefines our understanding of American history If a picture truly is worth a thousand words then Deborah Willis has given us nothing less than an epic history of Homeric proportions Taken together Willis's magnificent gathering of images accompanied by her powerful narrative overturns many common ideas about black life during the last century and a half and in so doing rewrites American history Robin D G Kelley from the Foreword Originally published in 2000 Reflections in Black was the first single volume work to collect the images of leading African American photographers from the daguerreotype to the digital age Through its sheer power and inherent beauty Deborah Willis's groundbreaking assemblage of photographs of African American life from 1840 to the present triumphantly celebrated family endurance and spirituality over the last two centuries as it upended stereotypes and rewrote American history Aware that so much has changed since 2000 Willis a world renowned photographer curator and author has now created a breathtaking twenty fifth anniversary edition juxtaposing hundreds of images that appeared in the original edition with 130 new ones As the photographic panorama unfolds we are immersed in hugely moving glimpses of African American life from the last generation of enslaved people to the urban pioneers of the great migrations of the 1920s from the rare antebellum daguerreotypes of freemen to the courtly celebrants of the Harlem Renaissance and from civil rights activists to the postmodern photographic artists of the digital age Each photograph suggests an astonishing often spellbinding story Augustus Washington s mid nineteenth century portraits of key abolitionist figures for example offer a seemingly calm window into an era known for its violence A startling suite of J P Ball photographs depicts the life death and burial of a Black man hanged for murder in the Montana Territory Documenting a vibrant family life and a nascent Black middle class as well as Black tenant farmers and educators the book features James VanDerZee s famous shot of Marcus Garvey in a Universal Negro Improvement Association parade Addison N Scurlock s dignified portraits of Black intellectuals artists and musicians and John W Mosley s World War II era image of a young drum majorette in an Elks parade in Philadelphia Reflections in Black also includes a stunning array of celebrity images among them Booker T Washington Langston Hughes Gladys Bentley W E B Du Bois James Baldwin Martin Luther King Jr Malcolm X John Coltrane Billie Holiday and a veiled Coretta Scott King now accompanied in this edition by Michelle Obama the Roots and Angela Davis This enhanced volume with a new foreword from Robin D G Kelley and a coda from Kalia Brooks once again affirms the power of photography to reconfigure our conception of Black life in the African diaspora and American history Featuring the works of photographers such as Albert Chong LaToya Ruby Frazier Lorna Simpson Allison Janae Hamilton Renee Cox Carrie Mae Weems Andre D Wagner and Hank Willis Thomas this new edition is dedicated to the artists who stretch the definition of photography creating pieces more akin to multimedia and conceptual art Written and curated during the COVID 19 pandemic and in the aftermath of the brutal killings of George Floyd Breonna Taylor Ahmaud Arbery and Tony McDade the images that follow serve as a visual response to these unthinkable experiences as well as to the beauty of life Exceptionally handsome and historically consequential Reflections in Black is not only the rare volume that can be given as a gift on any occasion but a work so significant that it has the power to reconfigure the imagination This anniversary edition demands to be included in every American s library as an essential part of our country s heritage

Visions and Images, American Photographers on Photography Barbaralee Diamonstein-Spielvogel, Harry M. Callahan, 1981 This book is a valuable record of conversations with fifteen celebrated and distinguished photographers representing the spectrum of schools movements and styles currently in the medium The interviews establish a vivid and intimate portrait of each subject focusing on the history of the artist s career the relationship between his vocational photography and his personal imagery the genesis of particular works and specific technical processes and are invaluable to an understanding of American photography today Page 4 de la couverture Great Photographers of the American West Eva Weber, 2003-08-01 From

Edward Curtis haunting portraits to Ansel Adams soaring vistas this informative and visually compelling overview of America's most famous photographers traces the history and evolution of the black and white image and how it shaped our national view Photographers Carleton E Watkins Timothy O Sullivan Andrew J Russell William Henry Jackson and others have left future generations a bountiful legacy of visual images that provide a remarkable historic record of the land and its people

American Photographers of the Depression United States. Farm Security Administration, 1985 25 Under 25 Sylvia Plachy, 2008-05-13 A CDS Book 25 Under 25 Up and Coming American Photographers Volume 2 showcases 25 more of America's most promising photographers 25 years old and younger Illuminating and sometimes startling the collection presents work by an emerging generation of photographers at the start of their careers The first book in the series published in 2003 by powerHouse Books and CDS Books was selected as a Best Book of 2003 by Photo District News This new volume of 25 Under 25 features photographs selected by renowned photographer Sylvia Plachy that explore the theme of transitions what it means to be in between in flux at odds in a new state of being personally locally nationally or internationally The photographers who must have been born on or after April 28 1980 were drawn from a widely publicized nationwide competition run by CDS 25 Under 25 presents a wide array of photographs reflecting the world as seen through young but sophisticated eyes the devastation from Hurricane Katrina the battle weary soldiers and civilian casualties of the Iraq War explicit explorations of sexuality urban and suburban landscapes These images whether of people or of what people leave behind show us that the human imprint is everywhere moving altering desiring aspiring to permanence What we search for is a secret like the pearl in the ocean not easily found or given up We are curious driven sometimes outgoing sometimes introverted much of who we are is visible in our pictures Sylvia Plachy writes in her introduction Too often in the service of politics and commerce photographs are inadequate or false But here we project ourselves into these images filled with insight and compassion and enter their collective memory as a continuation in the history of photography All of these photographers each in their own perceptive way surprise us with their finds The Amateur Photographer, 1907 The popular illustrated journal for all photographers devoted to the interests of photography and kindred arts and sciences

The Professional and Amateur Photographer, 1902 Ansel Adams and the Photographers of the American West Eva Weber, Ansel Adams, 2002 This book offers a broad collection of striking photographs some familiar many rare by both well known and unknown photographers A distinguished historian of photography the author Eva Weber brings a special perspective to this book with her discussions of the subjects and themes that have persisted and pervaded the photographs of the American West 8 X 10, 1976 Photographers' Association News, 1920 Biographies of Western Photographers Carl Mautz, 1997 Photo-Era Magazine, the American Journal of Photography Juan C. Abel, Thomas Harrison Cummings, Wilfred A. French, A. H. Beardsley, 1901 American Women Photographers Martha Kreisel, 1999-02-28 American women have made significant contributions to the field of photography for well over a century This bibliography compiles more than 1 070 sources for over 600 photographers from the 1880s to the present As women s role in society changed so did their role as photographers In the early years women often served as photographic assistants in their husbands studios The photography equipment initially heavy and difficult to transport was improved in the 1880s by George Eastman s innovations With the lighter camera equipment photography became accessible to everyone Women photographers became journalists and portraitists who documented vanishing cultures and ways of life Many of these important female photographers recorded life in the growing Northwest and the streets of New York City became pioneers of historic photography as they captured the plight of Americans fleeing the Dust Bowl and the horrors of the concentration camps and were members of the Photo Secessionist Movement to promote photography as a true art form This source serves as a checklist for not only the famous but also the less familiar women photographers who deserve attention
