American Power in the 21st Century David Held, Mathias Koenig-Archibugi, 2004-11-30 America wields a combination of military economic and cultural power that many consider unprecedented The way America uses this power has repercussions on every major issue of world affairs including the prospects of regional security the spread of democratic governance and the provision of global public goods in economic and environmental domains This volume explores the questions raised by American power from a variety of perspectives Is the emphasis laid on military power likely to be self defeating for the United States in the long run Is soft power or persuasion a more effective way to promote American interests and goals How is American predominance perceived in Europe China and the Arab world Will it last or will other powers coalesce to resist US hegemony The authors address these and other fundamental questions in rigorous and historically sensitive analyses of this critical juncture in global politics The book will be of great interest to students and scholars in political science and international relations as well as all those concerned with and by one of the key topics of our time Contributors include Robert Cooper Michael Cox Zhiyuan Cui Abdelwahab El Affendi G John Ikenberry Robert Kagan Mary Kaldor Joseph S Nye Thomas Risse

The Ashgate Research Companion to Modern Theory, Modern Power, World Politics Nevzat Soguk, Scott G Nelson, 2016-04-28 Deliberately eschewing disciplinary and temporal boundaries this volume makes a major contribution to the de traditionalization of political thinking within the discourses of international relations Collecting the works of twenty five theorists this Ashgate Research Companion engages some of the most pressing aspects of political thinking in world politics today The authors explore theoretical constitutions critiques and affirmations of uniquely modern forms of power past and present Among the themes and dynamics examined are textual appropriation and representation materiality and capital formation geopolitical dimensions of ecological crises connections between representations of violence and securitization subjectivity and genderization counter globalization politics constructivism biopolitics post colonial politics and theory as well as the political prospects of emerging civic and cosmopolitan orders in a time of national religious and secular polarization Radically different in their approaches the authors critically assess the discourses of IR as interpretive frames that are indebted to the historical formation of concepts and to particular negotiations of power that inform the main methodological practices usually granted primacy in the field Students as well as seasoned scholars seeking to challenge accepted theoretical frameworks will find in these chapters fresh insights into contemporary
