Whether or not Steiner's insights are valid is for each of us to determine. His work is not easy and he challenges our usual thinking every step of the way. The insights are radical in the original meaning of that word: they go to the roots. We are forced more and more to realize that only through such thinking can actions arise that are truly healing and constructive.

Henry Barnes, from the introduction: Few people today recognize Rudolf Steiner's name, yet those who are aware of him know that his presence pervades every forward-looking aspect of contemporary life. Nearly all fields of life have been fructified by his insights, not abstractly or theoretically but in a concrete way that changes lives. No wonder then that Steiner has been called the best-kept secret of the twentieth century. Born in 1861 in Kraljvec, Austria, Steiner showed evidence early on of the most varied gifts: a precise and probing scientific mind combined with a natural clairvoyant ability to see into the spiritual world; a determined need to think things through for himself and a profound reverence for the divine. He first made his mark as a philosopher and the editor of Goethe's scientific writings. He also recognized the revolutionary spirit in Nietzsche. But Steiner's destiny led him in a different direction. Profound cognitive experiences determined that his task would lie in service to the spirit. While recognizing the integrity of modern science's phenomenological empiricism, he also knew that the time had come to extend the field of science to include investigation of the supersensible. Working at first within the Theosophical Society but always speaking and writing out of his own experience, Steiner developed the foundations for a thoroughly modern spiritual scientific discipline that would transform spiritual and cultural life. Until his death in 1925, in countless lectures and books, Steiner created the body of knowledge and practice known as anthroposophy, which not only challenged and extended the underlying methods of modern knowledge but stimulated many practical cultural initiatives, such as Waldorf education, biodynamic agriculture, the art of eurythmy, the movement for a threefold social order, and anthroposophical medicine.

Henry Barnes, the author of Into the Heart's Land: A Century of Rudolf Steiner's Work in North America, recounts the dynamic life of this remarkable man. He does so by placing Steiner in the crosscurrents of history and showing him not as a spectator or ivory tower philosopher but as a leading actor in the drama, one whose entire being was given in service to humanity and to the spirit.

This book introduces a new way for thinking about creating and viewing art. Rudolf Steiner saw his task as the renewal of the lost unity of science the arts and religion thus he created a new cognitive scientific and religious art in anthroposophy The implications of his act recognized by such diverse artists as Wassily Kandinsky and Joseph Beuys are only now coming fully to light In his thorough introduction of more than a hundred pages Michael Howard takes readers through these thought provoking chapters Is Art Dead To Muse or Amuse Artistic Activity As Spiritual Activity The Representative of Humanity Beauty Creativity and Metamorphosis New Directions in Art Lectures include The Aesthetics of Goethe s Worldview The Spiritual Being of Art Buildings Will Speak The Sense Organs and Aesthetic Experience The Two Sources of Art The Building at Dornach The Supersensible Origin of the Arts Truth Beauty and Goodness Christ Ahriman and Lucifer Plus a bibliography and index Die Architekturen Rudolf Steiners Sonja Marion Brigitta Ohlenschläger,1992

Spirit and Art Van James,2002 Stumbling through life gazing at the stars we can miss the greatest treasure beneath our feet For the ordinary faculties of our soul how we think how we feel how we act are the rough and fallen forms of our highest spiritual capacities This book shows how six of these common abilities thinking feeling doing loving opening thanking can be intensified infinitely We already think we can learn to think more deeply more livingly We already feel we can learn to train our feeling life away from ourselves so that we feel the world in its richness We already thank we can learn a depth of gratitude that makes life and love intensely real These exercises are simple but demanding By strengthening our capacity to pay attention they allow us to say the right word and have the fresh thought just when we need to They gradually lead us out of the mire of distraction and confusion and allow us to practice what we need most continual presence of mind Alles
