Beyond Conception The New Politics Of Re:

Beyond Conception Patricia Spallone, 1989 Beyond Conception is a feminist critique of the new reproductive and genetic technologies whose impact has been most apparent since the birth of the first test tube baby The author finds that these technologies are not created in women's interest Instead they require the subordination of women to science The Politics of Motherhood Alexis Jetter, Annelise Orleck, Diana Taylor, 1997 Essays and interviews explode the myth of apolitical motherhood by showing how 20th century women have politicized their role as mothers in a wide range of social contexts Conceptions Aditya Bharadwaj, 2016-08-01 Infertility and assisted reproductive technologies in India lie at the confluence of multiple cultural conceptions These conceptions are key to understanding the burgeoning spread of assisted reproductive technologies and the social implications of infertility and childlessness in India This longitudinal study is situated in a number of diverse locales which when taken together unravel the complex nature of infertility and assisted conception in contemporary India Daring to be Good Bat-Ami Bar On, Ann Ferguson, 1998 These essays challenge the private/public split that assumes ethics is a private individual concern and politics is a public group concern The collection addresses philosophical issues and controversies of interest to feminists including prostitution the ethics of the human genome research project as it impacts Native Americans and reproductive technology Body/Politics Thomas Shevory, 2000-02-28 Negotiating the terrain between techno-optimism and eco-pessimism this work establishes the political connections between technologies of the body property and the environment Specific technologies of the body such as surrogacy and in vitro fertilization are examined in relation to their political and legal constructions Next Shevory analyzes private property as an evolving historical concept that implicates environmental and biological transformations with particular attention given to biotechnology cases He then considers the body's appearance and its alterations through plastic surgery dieting or piercing as political constructions A theoretical overview specifies technoprogressivist liberal and technophobic traditions especially as they have evolved in the United States during the second half of the 20th century Drawing upon critical and feminist theories Shevory specifies a body politics that negotiates the terrain between these two traditions Body technologies and markets he argues interact to consolidate and reinforce dominant systems of power while at the same time resisting and sometimes subverting them Technology is often a factor in the fragmentation of evolving political ideological discourses on the left and right however the resulting instabilities create the potential for both the expansion of global capital and its subversion via democratic interventions The Manner Born Lauren Dundes, 2004-09-01 This essential collection on maternal and child health focuses on the rites of giving birth from a cross-cultural perspective The distinguished list of contributors describe the many customs surrounding birth through infancy highlighting a wide range of variation in practices across cultures They discuss attitudes and techniques in childbirth the interaction between human evolutionary form and birthing procedures the influence of societal factors that differentiate Western from non-Western maternal birthing positions and the art of midwifery Also treated are less well known areas of birthing such as the imagery of birthing placenta rituals and popular beliefs about the amniotic membrane called a caul In addition the authors explore the humoral medical tradition used in birthing the possible influence of cultural practices on Sudden Infant Death Syndrome SIDS customs and beliefs regarding breastfeeding weaning swaddling and finally a sociobiological perspective on early infant behavior This book will be valuable for courses in medical sociology and anthropology public health or behavioral sciences psychology and psychiatry and for pre med students Future Survey Annual 1990 Michael Marien,1990-01-01 Sex and Reason Richard A. Posner,1992-03 As judge and legal scholar Posner shows we make quite rational choices about sex based on costs and benefits perceived Drawing on the fields of biology law history religion and economics this study examines societies from ancient Greece to today s Sweden and issues from masturbation incest taboos date rape and gay marriage to Baby M Issues in Feminism Sheila Ruth,1995 This best selling text reader offers 65 interdisciplinary readings drawn from work in the humanities and the social sciences Classic and contemporary selections represent both feminist and anti feminist viewpoints in an examination of women s lives and the ways in which women can effect alternatives to traditional gender roles Extensive chapter introductions place selections in context define and explain concepts and terminology and provide a cohesive framework for the collection Future Survey Annual ,1990 The Utne Reader ,1989 Law and Bioethics Michael D. A. Freeman,2008 Current Legal Issues like its sister volume Current Legal Problems is based upon an annual colloquium held at University College London Each year leading scholars from around the world gather to discuss the relationship between law and another discipline of thought Each colloquium examines how the external discipline is conceived in legal thought and argument how the law is pictured in that discipline and analyses points of controversy in the use and abuse of extra legal arguments within legal theory and practice Law and Bioethics the latest volume in the Current Legal Issues series contains a broad range of essays by scholars interested in the interactions between law and bioethics It includes studies examining the regulation of stem cell research human rights and bioethics the regulation of reproductive technologies and distributive justice in healthcare and pandemic planning Technology and Culture ,1997 American Decades: 1980-1989 Vincent Tompkins,Judith Baughman,Victor Bondi,Richard Layman,Eric L. Bargeron,James F. Tidd,1996 Intended as a reference source for American social history this volume discusses the people events and ideas of the period 1980 1989 After an introductory overview and chronology subject chapters follow with subject specific timelines and alphabetically arranged entries Social Perspectives on Pregnancy and Childbirth for Midwives, Nurses and the Caring Professions Julie Kent,2000 This book explores contemporary issues around pregnancy and childbirth using a feminist sociological approach It goes beyond biological accounts of pregnancy and childbirth to examine the social processes U.C.L. Jurisprudence Review ,1996 UCLA Women's Law Journal ,1991 Sociological Abstracts Leo P. Chall,2003 CSA Sociological Abstracts abstracts and indexes the international literature in
