Mothers of Adult Children Marguerite Guzman Bouvard,2013-09-12 Mothers of Adult Children elucidates what happens when children come of age and leave home creating new lives in the realms of work and relationships Mothers from around the world learn that this is the point in which their relationships with their children must drastically change Mothers often come to terms with the changes by accepting differences and providing moral and emotional support when needed However the evolutionary nature of mothers roles throughout the course of their children s lives is not only determined by the mother child dynamic The mothering of adult children is a transformative role and the stories presented here show that the dynamics between mother and child are also influenced by cultural events Accidents disasters war and other hardships also intervene in these stories of multicultural motherhood This book reveals the problems mothers of adult children face and celebrates the outstanding accomplishments of those who mother through hardship

Handbook of Diversity in Parent Education Marvin J. Fine,Steven W. Lee,2000-10-09 Traditionally books on parent education have focused on techniques from a certain tradition either behavioral or humanistic that could be applied to any problem of parenting or child behavior change These books have used a cook book approach that is frequently oblivious to environmental conditions that influence behavior or take into account the individual differences of the children or families involved This book highlights the complexity of our society and times by exploring the problems faced by diverse types of parents children and parenting situations Moreover the sensitive issues of parenting in unique populations are handled in a caring straight forward way with an emphasis on research based parent education programs along with tips and strategies for everyday use Premier text on parent education in diverse populations Features tips strategies websites and support for parents Based upon cutting edge research in parent education Models for developing problem specific parenting programs Step by step parent education programs for low incidence problems Features violence and crisis prevention and intervention skills for families

Brief Encounters with Couples Francis Grier,2018-05-08 Deriving from a conference organised by the Tavistock Marital Studies Institute the present volume draws the main focus of its inquiry from a few fundamental questions In its various brief encounters and in disparate contexts how effective can a psychoanalytic approach be when it addresses the parental child or adult couple relationship What specific quality of contact can be achieved in the relationship between client s and therapist in shorter term work This compilation of essays written by experienced practitioners engages directly and positively these and other questions demonstrating with clinical material the efficacious contribution of a psychoanalytic psychotherapy In both the similarity and variety of responses to the complex issues explored the authors display a creative engagement and theoretical understanding that will be of great interest and stimulus to all professionals working in this field Dying Hannelore Wass,Robert A. Neimeyer,2018-10-24 This work provides an up to date examination of the ways people face dying and bereavement In this third edition previous chapters are thoroughly revised and new contributors expand areas that have changed significantly Reflecting the field s complex interdisciplinary character the chapters cover such diverse areas as psychology nursing medicine AIDS family studies sociology education philosophy law religion the humanities and political science whilst highlighting thanatology s core psychological and therapeutic caregiving dimensions First the text offers broad examinations of death systems from the vantage points of various cultural historical and disciplinary perspectives The second section represents the core of the book offering detailed surveys of the data of death dying and bereavement as they relate to different phases of our encounter with death as an abstract possibility and concrete reality Next are chapters addressing a cluster of death related issues and challenges that confront us at both a societal and individual level such as AIDS and finally the volume closes with a few reflections on the complexity of contemporary thanatology framing some issues and recommendations that deserve greater attention by scholars researchers policy makers and practitioners Also included is a comprehensive resource bibliography on the topic This text is intended to be of use as a resource for all those interested in reading about death studies both professionals and students alike

Children Mourning, Mourning Children Kenneth J. Doka,2014-01-21 Based on the Hospice Foundation of America s second annual teleconference this book explores three basic themes in children s grief Firstly it maintains that children are always developing therefore their understanding of death and their reactions to illness and loss are also multifaceted and constantly undergoing change Secondly children grieve in ways that are both different from and similar to adults While they may need different therapeutic approaches from their elders each loss is different and the grief experience will be affected by many of the same factors that affect adults Thirdly it holds that they need significant support as they grieve Talking to children about loss and and illness is too important to wait until a crisis rather it is essential to provide opportunities to discuss loss in times that are not so Emotionally Laden This Book Aims

To Demonstrate That Open Communication between parents and children will lead to skills and understanding that are essential to the child for coping with loss and reaffirming that death is part of the process of living Paperbound Books in Print ,1992 Life-span human development Carol K. Sigelman,David Reed Shaffer,1991 This life span development text known for its clear authoritative writing style and its solid research orientation offers a topical organization at the chapter level and a consistent chronological presentation within each chapter Each chapter focuses on a domain of development such as physical growth cognition or personality and traces developmental trends and influences in that domain from infancy to old age Within each developmental chapter you will find sections on four life stages Infancy Childhood Adolescence and Adulthood This unique organization enables students to comprehend the processes of transformation that occur within the many areas of human development New co author Elizabeth Rider brings to this edition her expertise in cognitive development and gender issues Additional enhancements include a stronger emphasis on biological and cultural influences a new four color design and an improved pedagogical plan Omega ,1993 Psychological Aspects of Women's Health Care Nada Logan Stotland,Donna E. Stewart,2001 In the decade since the first edition of this work was published an incredible array of reproductive technologies and associated issues has emerged Obstetricians and gynecologists are hard pressed to deal with the startling breadth and depth of these issues which require mastery over a daunting combination of ever increasing scientific knowledge technical skills long hours legal liability and exposure to clinical situations of overwhelming emotional intensity Psychiatrists have a vital role to play in helping obstetricians and gynecologists cope with a host of problems whose resolutions require not just technical skill but also knowledge of biology psychology sociology anthropology ethics and law For example to design and implement strategies to reduce the transmission of HIV psychiatrists could work with public health workers to incorporate the psychology sociology and anthropology of female reproductive behavior Psychiatrists could likewise improve the diagnosis and treatment of breast and pelvic malignancies by elucidating the factors that deter women from self examination and regular medical screening and enhance treatment compliance Divided into three sections this clinical and theoretical sourcebook addresses every major area of contemporary concern Pregnancy covers topics from the psychology of normal gestation to physical and psychiatric complications during and after pregnancy including new prenatal diagnostic techniques and the dynamic issues that emerge when abnormalities are detected and the use of psychotropic drugs and electroconvulsive therapy in pregnant and lactating patients Gynecology discusses not only common gynecologic problems but also more controversial issues such as induced abortion and the new reproductive technologies including the role of the menstrual cycle in exacerbating and precipitating psychologic symptoms the psychiatric aspects of menopause the assessment and management of chronic pelvic pain the psychosocial concomitants of gynecologic malignancies and the emotional demands on the oncology team and the special implications of HIV AIDS General Issues offers a broad balanced view of topics rarely found in the literature such as men s reactions to women s reproductive events substance abuse and eating disorders sexual and physical abuse often part of the histories of patients with personality disorders and posttraumatic stress disorders ethical and legal issues and health care for lesbian patients Of special significance is Dr Stotland's chapter on how consultation liaison services are provided to obstetrics and gynecology services This practical and scholarly volume is exceptionally useful as a teaching reference for medical and other health care students and residents in psychiatry and obstetrics and gynecology It also provides a valuable resource for the clinician working to improve the psychological well being of women patients

Handbook of Family Development and Intervention William C. Nichols, 2000-02-25 Like all complex living systems a family during its life course proceeds through predictable stages of development Yet every family is different its uniqueness defined and continually redefined by an open ended array of structural biological and sociocultural variables And as with all living things a family's continued well being depends upon its ability to adapt to changes arising from both within the family system and without First postulated in the 1940s these basic ideas constitute the conceptual core of modern family development theory From them has blossomed an impressive body of knowledge about family health and illness without which much of the progress occurring in family therapy over the past half century would not have been possible This book does much to promote continued progress in the practical application of family development theory by affording family therapists an unparalleled opportunity to acquaint themselves with the most important trends in family development theory to emerge over the past decade In it you will find contributions from leading theorists researchers and clinicians arranged so as to provide a systematic treatment of the latest thinking on family development seen from both the systemic viewpoint and that of individual members of the system Comprehensive in scope this book explores the patterns processes and dynamics inherent in traditional families as well as in important structural variants such as single parent and gay and lesbian families and families with special needs and problems including divorce physical abuse and disabilities Since progress in the social sciences is as much about formulating viable new ways of seeing as it is about determining quantifiable facts the editors offer equal time to an array of influential and sometimes radically conflicting schools of thought including sociobiology social psychology constructionism multiculturalism postmodernism and feminism Mainstream family therapists will find much in this handbook that they will consider controversial In some cases readers may even be outraged by the views expressed Yet thanks to the high caliber of scholarship intellect and professionalism evidenced throughout none of the ideas advanced in Handbook of Family Development and Intervention can be easily dismissed and all have something of value to offer the thoughtful dedicated family therapist Handbook of Family Development and Intervention is a valuable professional resource for all couples and family therapists It is also must reading for graduate students in family psychology family therapy social work and counseling In this magnificent volume the editors make a major contribution that integrates individual and family development concepts and therapeutic applications by bringing together scholarly yet fresh contributions The inclusion of various family forms and of families with special needs makes this volume especially relevant to the treatment of contemporary families as we enter the new millennium This superb Handbook should be mandatory reading and an excellent reference for teachers researchers and therapists at all levels of development Celia J Falicov PhD President 1999 2001 American Family Therapy Academy Sociological Abstracts ,1989 Journal of Nursery Education ,1984 Books in Print Supplement ,2002 Death and Dying, Life and Living Charles A. Corr,Clyde Nabe,Donna M. Corr,1994 This unique book discusses the challenging issues in life death and dying as it applies to everyone people who are facing death those who are coping with dying or with bereavement those struggling with decisions about euthanasia or who are contemplating suicide and those who wish to teach children about the place of death in life The book provides a solid foundation readers can use as they pursue their own insights emphases and special interests in this field The authors illustrate that while we cannot make death disappear from our lives we can learn from each other talk about death together and determine how to live more productive lives in the face of death Books in Print ,1977 Understanding Mass Violence Shulamith Lala Ashenberg Straussner,Norma Kolko Phillips,2004 Understanding Mass Violence prepares social workers to intervene with people affected by human caused violence such as school shootings or terrorist acts The difficult challenges facing social work practitioners are discussed and suggestions for self care are provided Mass violence is also examined within the broader context of social policy and social justice The book is organized into 5 sections and includes 13 chapters providing the content for a course on social work and mass violence or trauma Understanding Dying, Death & Bereavement Michael R. Leming,George E. Dickinson,1998 This work approaches the subject of death and dying from a social psychological perspective while examining the social meanings of dying and death It addresses such issues as religion and death attitudes the dying process euthanasia bereavement burial practices and death perceptions from childhood through older adulthood This edition has been updated to include information and statistics on death etiology and life expectancy
