Management Economics Business Environmental Ethics Ethics and Politics Legal Medical Ethics Philosophy Theories Social and Social Media State-of-the-Art Theories and Empirical Evidence Roshima Said, Noor Zahirah Mohd Sidek, Zubir Azhar, Khairul Anuar Kamarudin, 2017-12-06 This book discusses several important issues related to corporate governance reporting corporate social responsibility CSR fraud and bankruptcy It gathers papers presented at the 6th International Conference on Governance Fraud Ethics and Social Responsibility which was held in Penang Malaysia on 18 19 November 2015 The content is divided into three major sub themes Corporate Governance and Accountability Corporate Social Responsibility CSR and Sustainable Development and Ethics Risk and Fraud The first sub theme addresses recently identified issues such as corporate governance reporting corporate governance regulation differences between countries governance and financial market economics financial market supervision and control and risk management In turn the second sub theme focuses on international auditing standards green socially responsible investment environmental and social accounting and auditing CSR related matters legislation and CSR reporting differences for public listed companies accounting for sustainable development performance and sustainability assessment models The third sub theme puts the spotlight on financial assessment and diagnosis modeling hedging fraud bankruptcy accounting and auditing ethics and ethical problems in financial markets Taken together the issues discussed here provide state of art theories and empirical evidence approached from broad perspectives making the book a valuable resource for researchers students and practitioners alike

Learning, Teaching and Social Justice in Higher Education Noah Riseman, Sue Rechter, Ellen Warne, 2010 This book brings together a wide range of higher education practitioners from across disciplines Their chapters suggest innovative approaches to learning teaching and delivering a tertiary education experience that centres social justice as a core mission of universities The authors address the ways in which universities grapple with the challenges involved in the selection processes administration teaching and learning and student support associated with an increasingly large student population drawn from a broad range of socioeconomic and cultural backgrounds including many students who will be returning to live overseas Some of the specific challenges of these developments have included those of selection academic literacy independent learning student support and student engagement A second dimension is the traditional role of the universities as sources of independent intellectual and ethical critique of social institutions both in terms of research and public intellectual contribution to political and social policy debates and in terms of the formation of students in their capacities as critical ethical citizens and professionals This social ethical critique has traditionally been built into the humanities and the social science disciplines and the helping professions but has now found its way into other disciplines and professional areas such as business and engineering As well broader social policy and political discourse has more explicitly embraced social ethical agendas of inclusiveness and marginalisation of social groups recognition of the damage to the overall society of enduring and increasing social inequality BOOK JACKET Creating Shared Value - Concepts, Experience, Criticism Josef

Wieland,2017-01-05 Over the last years Creating Shared Value has become a much discussed concept in business practice as well as in management theory and especially in the context of corporate social responsibility This book offers a contribution to the current academic discussions on the well received article of Michael Porter and Marc Kramer in Harvard Business Review in 2011 In the light of the increasing references to the shared value concept it develops a critical discussion on its fundamentals and its implications for the relationship between economy and society By that the book seeks to shed light on the understanding of the role and the nature of the firm in a globalized economy The result is a collection of interdisciplinary academic reviews which offer interdisciplinary reflections on Creating Shared Value to illuminate theoretical conceptual and practical challenges of the topic Within the fields of Business Ethics Theory of the Firm Management and Philosophy researcher students and practitioners will be given a deeper insight on how to approach to the concept in a conceptional and philosophical way

Public Theology in Law and Life Paul Babie,Brian Edgar,David Wilson,2012-08-30 Public theology involves the application of biblical and theological principles outside the confines of the church and assesses their implications for wider society It examines both the theoretical structures of society the nature of secularity government globalisation pluralism and so forth and the myriad specific issues involved in daily life everything from sport to work place relations to economics Public theology is also very importantly a discipline that is practiced by the ordinary Christian as well as the academic and it is done in public with all the scrutiny that entails and in such a way that it communicates to non Christians although it remains a theological endeavour In a real sense it is theology for the world from the Word by the people of God The volume has a variety of contributors and includes an article on the role of public theology in Islam

International Corporate Social Responsibility Ramon Mullerat,2010-01-01 At present Corporate Social Responsibility CSR for some may not be more than an attitude Can it be more What degree of commitment can we reasonably expect of corporations in the struggle to eradicate poverty promote human rights halt climate change and reverse ongoing environmental destruction It is not a question of power more than half of the worlds top 100 economies are corporations not nation states Whatever can be done to fix the world s problems corporations are in the best position to do it
