Beyond Our Mothers' Footsteps Breggie James,1998      The Mother in Psychoanalysis and Beyond Rosalind Mayo,Christina Moutsou,2016-10-04 The question of what it means to be a mother is a very contentious topic in psychoanalysis and in wider society The Mother in Psychoanalysis and Beyond explores our relationship to the maternal through psychoanalysis philosophy art and political and gender studies Over two years a group of psychotherapists and members of the public met at the Philadelphia Association for a series of seminars on the Maternal In the discussions that followed a chasm opened up slowly and painfully between the idealised longings and fantasies we all share and the realities of maternal experiences here were met the great silences of love loss longing memories desire hatred and ambivalence This book is the result of this bringing together in conversation and reflections of what so often seems unsayable about the Mother It examines how issues of personal and gender identity are shaped by the ideals of separation from the mother the fears and anxiety of merging with the mother and how this has often led in psychoanalysis and society to holding mothers responsible for a variety of personal and social ills and problems in which maternal vulnerability is denied and silenced There are two main themes running throughout the book Matricide and Maternal Subjectivity On the theme of matricide several contributors discuss the ways in which the discourse and narratives of the Mother have been silenced on a sociocultural level and within psychoanalysis and philosophy in favour of discourses that promote independence autonomy power and the avoidance and denial of our fundamental helplessness and vulnerability On the theme of maternal subjectivity several chapters look at the actual experience of mothering and or our relationship to our mother to highlight the ways in which the maternal is intimately connected with human subjectivity The Mother in Psychoanalysis and Beyond provides new and provocative thinking about the maternal and its place in various contemporary discourses It will appeal to psychoanalysts psychotherapists and psychologists of different schools scholars and advanced students of art gender studies politics and philosophy as well as anyone interested in maternity studies and the relationship between the maternal and human subjectivity      Home Work Helen Hayward,2023-11-01 When Helen Hayward had her two children in London 25 years ago she found looking after them easy Loving and looking after her kids was straightforward However loving and looking after her home was not She had long been instructed to put her career first So she did Yet what to do with the mushrooming laundry by the bathroom door And what about if she actually liked cooking Home Work is a series of personal essays motivated by three questions 1 Is there an art to running a home 2 Can it be a satisfying thing to do 3 Has the work we do around the home which accounts for roughly a 1 4 of our waking hours something important to teach us about life itself

V. Perrone,2014-05-31 As the author of this novel I prefer not to provide biographic data except to disclose that I

currently reside in Florida having moved there in 2004 after working in the financial district of New York City While still a rail commuter from New Jersey my daily morning route included taking the PATH train from Hoboken into the basement of the World Trade Center where especially when the weather was spring like I usually would exit the complex through its central plaza and from there walk the three blocks to my office My timing was such that I was usually in the plaza by 8 45 AM in order to be on time for work Having returned a few days earlier from a tiring vacation I decided that fateful Tuesday morning of September 11 2001 to get a few extra winks of sleep and to take the late train to work As a result I was about thirty minutes later than usual and not where I normally would have been at 8 46 AM when the first plane struck the north tower of the World Trade Center If the events of that day did not change my perspective on life then the following weeks and months of working in the humbling atmosphere of such a terrible disaster did Many questions were asked and not answered Was it by human design alone Was it because of divine punishment In any event in order to mentally escape the reality of an environment in which physical escape was not then possible I found that when I had a private moment to think on the subway the commuter train on a work break etc I did so with pen in hand And what emerged at the time were poems that helped me deal with questions of the soul and resolve the remorse I felt which was later replaced with a sense of hope Although I always had what I thought to be a talent for writing through which I could express thoughts and feelings in a way I never could do verbally I had never written anything of consequence before that disastrous day in 2001 And yet looking back it seemed that whatever pen I subsequently used in writing those poems which eventually turned out to be many must have had a magical connection because the words came only after first picking up the pen Many times the words came quickly without my having to think as if I was simply transcribing what was being dictated It was the same with this novel I never planned to write a novel and most certainly do not consider myself an author But one day a thought came into my head causing me to pick up a pen and on a simple notepad I began to write the first chapter of this book The characters immediately came into being and essentially it is their novel their story At times when the story stagnated causing me to sit at the computer while my fingers remained still it was as if the characters had nothing to say so much so that if a family member who knew of the writing of this novel would ask me at the time how it was coming along my answer would be that the characters weren t talking to me So maybe this isn t a novel at all Maybe it all did happen a long while ago and that through some kind of a time anomaly the people described herein may have telepathically communicated their story to me so that this world that we live in today could have knowledge of what once had been I really don t know what do you think J V Perrone
