Beyond Superstructuralism:

Beyond Superstructuralism Richard Harland, 1993 Challenges the foundation of recent literary and language based theory offering instead a syntagmatic approach to language Covers post Chomskyan linguistics deconstruction analytic and speech act theory

Beyond Superstructuralism Richard Harland, 2003-09-02 Moving on from his previous book Superstructuralism Richard Harland argues that the focus on single words in the structuralist theory of language is its key weakness and that the next advance beyond post structuralism depends upon replacing word based with syntagm based theories In a lucid way he develops a new syntagmatic theory which shows that the effect of combining words grammatically can transform the very nature of meaning The wide breadth of coverage in the book covers both post Chomskyan linguistics and Derrida and sets up an opposition to analytic and speech act views of language By presenting a systematic critique and counter proposal Harland challenges the very foundation of recent literary and language based theory

Experiencing the Postmetaphysical Self Fionola Meredith, 2004-12-14 This book charts and challenges the bruising impact of post Saussurean thought on the categories of experience and self presence It attempts a reappropriation of the category of lived experience in dialogue with poststructuralist thinking Following the insight that mediated subjectivity need not mean alienated selfhood Meredith forwards a postmetaphysical model of the experiential based on the interpenetration of poststructuralist thinking and hermeneutic phenomenology Since poststructuralist approaches in feminist theory have often placed women s lived experiences under erasure Meredith uses this hermeneutic deconstructive model to attempt a rehabilitation of the singular flesh and blood female existent

Seven Metaphysical Poets Robert Ellrodt,2000 Robert Ellrodt s study of seven poets springing from his wide ranging three volume work Les Po tes m taphysiques anglais challenges the postmodernist assumption that no definite or constant self can be traced in the works of a writer Distinct modes of self awareness different emphases in the perception of time and space and various ways of grasping the sensible and the spiritual the human and the divine jointly or separately characterize the minds of Donne and George Herbert Crashaw and Vaughan Lord Herbert Marvell and Traherne Fundamental mental structures affect their attitudes to love death and God and dictate their privileged modes of composition and expression Without neglecting the relations between these individual traits and the general evolution of thought from classical antiquity to the Renaissance or the immediate cultural environment in which each poet wrote this critical study maintains the primacy of individual choice of the unchanging self The book is not based on a theory but on a close scrutiny of the characteristic interplay of personal modes of thought and sensibility
