Beyond Training Teacher Development In Language Teaching:

Beyond Training Jack C. Richards, 1998-02-13 Beyond Training examines the nature of second language teacher development and how teachers practices are influenced by their beliefs and principles It seeks to move discussion of language teacher development beyond the level of training which reflects a technical view of specific teaching practices Instead it takes a more holistic approach to teacher development built on the notion of the teacher as critical and reflective thinker The argument pursued throughout is that teacher education needs to engage teachers not merely in the mastery of techniques but in an exploration of the knowledge beliefs and attitudes that underly their teaching practices

Teacher Development in Teaching Chinese as a Second Language Jing Yan, Hui Huang, 2025-11-18 This unique volume focuses on the development of Chinese as a Second Language CSL teachers in the global context It addresses the specific issues and challenges faced by CSL teachers and demonstrates international practices in the field It also provides a comprehensive examination of their multifaceted professionalism from diverse perspectives With the rise of China as a political and economic power learning CSL has increasingly gained its popularity in a global context According to the Chinese International Education Foundation by 2023 the number of registered Chinese language learners exceeded 12.5 million Due to the shortage of teachers the Ministry of Education in China launched the International Chinese Language Teachers Volunteer Program in 2004 By 2021 more than 61,000 volunteer Chinese language teachers had been dispatched to more than 151 regions and countries Many more overseas universities colleges and higher institutes now have established CSL programmes at both undergraduate and postgraduate levels to cultivate local CSL teachers However as the number of CSL learners continues to grow the need for high quality Chinese language teachers has become more urgent than ever Responding to CSL teachers challenges of delivering Chinese language and culture to learners from diverse language and cultural backgrounds this book explores four interrelated themes 1 CSL teachers professional development in the global context 2 CSL teachers motivation agency and identity 3 CSL teachers knowledge and practice in multicultural and multilingual contexts and 4 CSL teachers technological literacy and agency in the digital era With its focus on both the internal and external complexities of CSL teacher development the book offers timely insights and practical guidance for researchers educators policymakers and frontline teachers working in this rapidly expanding field
