Restoring proto modernist little magazines known as ephemeral bibelots to the scholarly canon Emanating from the cabarets of modernist Paris a short lived vogue spread around the world for avant garde journals known in English as ephemeral bibelots For a time it seemed that all the young bohemians passing through Paris started their own bibelots modeled on Le Chat Noir the esoteric magazine of the famed Montmartre cabaret These journals were recognizable for their decadence campy queerness astounding art nouveau illustrations fin de si cle color schemes innovative typefaces and practiced bohemianism In Ephemeral Bibelots Brad Evans relays the untold story of this late nineteenth century craze for bibelots dusting off a trove of periodicals largely untouched by digitization In excavating this forgotten archive Evans calls into question the prehistory of modernist little magazines as well as the history of American art and literature at the turn of the twentieth century Considering how artistic movements take shape move and disappear the book is organized around three major themes vogue ephemera and obscurity with authors and artists to match A full color insert reveals a glorious array of bibelot covers This revisionary history of print culture incorporates discussions of pragmatist philosophy and relational aesthetics women writers like Juliet Wilbor Tompkins and Carolyn Wells the graphic artists Will Bradley Louis Rhead and John Sloan the dancer Loie Fuller and twentieth century figures like H L Mencken Amy Lowell and Anita Loos Bringing nineteenth century American literature and culture into conversation with modern art movements from around the world Ephemeral Bibelots provides new ways of thinking about the centrality of various media cultures to the attribution of aesthetic innovation and its staying power The Chap-book Herbert Stuart Stone,Bliss Carman,Harrison Rhodes,1965

The Juggler of Notre Dame and the Medievalizing of Modernity. Jan M. Ziolkowski,2018-07-24 This ambitious and vivid study in six volumes explores the journey of a single electrifying story from its first incarnation in a medieval French poem through its prolific rebirth in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries The Juggler of Notre Dame tells how an entertainer abandons the world to join a monastery but is suspected of blasphemy after dancing his devotion before a statue of the Madonna in the crypt he is saved when the statue delighted by his skill miraculously comes to life Jan Ziolkowski tracks the poem from its medieval roots to its rediscovery in late nineteenth century Paris before its translation into English in Britain and the United States The visual influence of the tale on Gothic revivalism and vice versa in America is carefully documented with lavish and inventive illustrations and Ziolkowski concludes with an examination of the explosion of interest in The Juggler of Notre Dame in the twentieth century and its place in mass culture today Volume 2 Medieval Meets Medievalism deals with the influence of the tale in nineteenth and early twentieth century Europe and America and the development of literary medievalism at this time The Juggler of Notre Dame and the Medievalizing of Modernity is a rich case study for the reception of the Middle Ages in modernity Spanning centuries and continents the medieval period is understood through the lens of its post modern reception in Europe and America Profound connections between the verbal and the visual are illustrated by a rich trove of images including book illustrations stained glass postage stamps architecture and Christmas cards Presented with great clarity and simplicity Ziolkowski s work is accessible to the general reader while its many new discoveries will be valuable to academics in such fields and disciplines as medieval studies medievalism philology literary history art history folklore performance studies and reception studies The Book Buyer ,1897 A review and record of current literature *The Life and Letters of William Sharp and "Fiona Macleod".
