

“The Seven Doctrines of Salvation.”

The seven doctrines of salvation are forgiveness, justification, reconciliation, redemption, sanctification, newness of life, and adoption.

The sinner occupies a sevenfold position before God. He is a debtor, a condemned criminal, an enemy, a slave, defiled and unholy, dead, and a poor stranger.

Man in his sevenfold position as a sinner needs the sevenfold salvation God has provided through His Son.

As debtors, sinners need forgiveness.

As condemned criminals, they need justification.

As enemies of God, they need reconciliation.

As slaves to sin, they need redemption.

As defiled and unholy, they need sanctification.

As dead, they need newness of life.

As poor strangers, they need adoption. The seven

Doctrines of Salvation: Sermons and Writings Joseph Fielding Smith, 1972 The Doctrine of Salvation; A Beginner's Guide to Understanding Biblical Theology: What Does Biblical Salvation Really Mean Michael Southard, 2017-01-25 Have you ever just wanted to sit down and read something about God or Jesus just to get closer to him to know him more intimately or to expand your understanding of his creation and plan for you So you find a book that advertises just the subject matter you are interested in then you open it and begin to read but before long you realize you have to run and get the dictionary Then you may have to purchase a dictionary of theology then maybe an encyclopedia of Christian apologetics just to understand what you are reading When this happens readers often give up on the book and never finish it and may never buy another one It can get discouraging when confronted with terminology like infralapsarianism hamartiology and demythologization and that doesn't include the hundreds of nontheological words rarely used in common communication today Authors write this way to keep the book from becoming the size of an encyclopedia However I did buy all those books and persevered in study because of my great hunger for the deeper things of God Now you can too because this book conveys these wonderful biblical thoughts and great theologians writings into plain common language The Doctrine of Salvation takes deep theological concepts and brings their understanding down to a street level as if it were This book describes on a practical level how these doctrines are to be applied to our lives and how we can relate them to others I refrain from using thirteen letter words but if they are needed I will use them and then immediately clarify their meaning so the reader will not lose their train of thought Enjoy reading about the wonders of God again in greater depth

Doctrines of Salvation Joseph Fielding Smith, 1954 The Cross and Salvation (Hardcover) Bruce Demarest, 2006-08-01 With America's confidence in the Bible at an all time low and the strength of her spiritual convictions waning it is essential for Christians especially Christian leaders to be well grounded in biblical theology To have a clear and comprehensive understanding of the key doctrines of evangelicalism In response professor and award winning author Bruce Demarest has made plain God's glorious plan of salvation his provision for the human dilemma through Christ's work on the cross and the application of saving grace to unbelievers Demarest's unique approach defines each topic identifies its most pressing issues examines the ways in which the doctrine has been understood historically and interprets the Bible's revelation The result is a clear and carefully constructed doctrinal statement that you can defend live out and communicate to others This singular comprehensive treatment of one of Christianity's essential doctrines gives definitive Bible based answers about salvation and the cross and about related theological issues such as grace and regeneration It's perfect for clarifying your theology and gaining deep understanding of this foundational theme Part of the Foundations of Evangelical Theology series Doctrines of Salvation Joseph Fielding Smith, 1956 The Doctrines of the Salvation Army Salvation Army, 1891 EXPLAINING THE DOCTRINE OF SALVATION Edward D.
