Documents in British History: Early times to 1714 Brian L. Blakeley, Jacquelin Collins, 1993 With selections drawn from both constitutional and cultural history this book invites students to examine evidence as historians do Documents are arranged in a straightforward chronological order allowing instructors to develop their own thematic emphasis and orientation Introductions give students the essential information they need to understand the documents Bibliography of British History, Stuart Period, 1603-1714 Godfrey Davies, 1928 Public Documents of Massachusetts Massachusetts, 1896 Catalogue of the Library of the Royal Statistical Society Royal Statistical Society (Great Britain). S. Lindsey (History teacher), 1911 Report of the Librarian of the State Library State Library of Massachusetts, 1896 Report of the Librarian and Annual Supplement to the General Catalogue State Library of Massachusetts, 1896 Deposing Monarchs Cathleen Sarti, 2021-12-30 Deposing Monarchs analyses depositions in Northern Europe between 1500 and 1700 as a type of frequent political conflict which allows to present new ideas on early modern state formation monarchy and the conventions of royal rulership The book revises earlier conceptualizations of depositions as isolated unique events that emerged in the context of national historiographies An examination of the official legitimations of depositions reveals that in times of crisis concepts of tradition rule of law and political consensus are much more influential than the divine right of kings Tracing the similarities and differences of depositions in Northern Europe transnationally and diachronically the book shows monarchical succession as more non linear than previously presumed It offers a transferable model of the different elements needed in depositions such as opposition to the monarch by multiple groups in a realm the need for a convincing rival candidate and a legitimation based on political traditions or religious ideas Furthermore the book bolsters our understanding of authority and rule as a constant process of negotiation adding to recent research on political culture and on the cultural history of politics Publishers' Circular and General Record of British and Foreign Literature, and Booksellers' Record, 1897 Catalogue of the Printed Books in the Library of the Faculty of Advocates Advocates' Library, 1867 The Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record of British and Foreign Literature, 1891 The Edinburgh University Calendar University of Edinburgh, 1896 Catalogue of the Printed Books in the Library of the Faculty of Advocates ...
