

Dialogues Between Two Friends about Meeting at the Park

Ali: Hey, it's been weeks since we met. How are you?

Ahmad: I'm great! The weather today makes this park visit perfect for catching up and relaxing under the trees.

Ali: Did you try that new café near the fountain?

Ahmad: Yes, their coffee is amazing. We should grab a cup after our walk around the park today.

Ali: Your dog seems happier lately.

Ahmad: He loves coming here. Running freely and chasing birds makes him so excited every single time.

Ali: Are you free this weekend for a picnic here?

Ahmad: Absolutely, let's pack some sandwiches and enjoy a sunny afternoon together with our favorite snacks.

Ali: I heard there's a small music event tonight near the lake.

Ahmad: That sounds fun! Live music and a cool breeze will make it even better for us.

Ali: Remember when we used to fly kites here as kids?

Ahmad: Of course! Those memories still bring a big smile whenever I think about those colorful kites and endless laughs.

Ali: Want to rent bikes and ride around the trail?

Ahmad: Yes, cycling is a great way to explore more of the park and get some exercise together today.

Ali: The flowers are blooming beautifully this season.

Ahmad: I agree, the colorful blossoms make this place look magical and fill the air with a sweet fragrance.

Ali: Did you bring your sketchbook today?

Ahmad: Yes, I plan to draw the lake view; it's so peaceful and inspiring for art.

Ali: After our walk, we can watch the sunset by the bridge.

Ahmad: That's a perfect idea. The golden light reflecting on the water always looks stunning and calming.

Between Us Friends:

Friendship with Christ John A. Vissers, 2026-04-21 Do the same characteristics of human friendship apply to friendship with Christ Friendships have the capacity to elevate our lives and make us better people they play an important role in our moral development spiritual growth and personal flourishing If this is true of human friends is it also true of friendship with God in Christ Can friendship with Christ mean the same thing for us today as it did for Christians throughout history John Vissers explores these questions and more to offer a robust biblical historical and theological study of friendship with Christ Rooted in John 15 this book draws on the threefold office of Christ as prophet priest and king to develop a theology of divine friendship against the backdrop of the biblical record and historical tradition Friendship with Christ Vissers argues is a theological framework that continues to provide consolation and hope for a secular age and suffering world With a foreword by Hans Boersma this book shows that friendship with Christ has been central to the experience of the providential love of God throughout church history and why it matters today
