Beyond the Case Corey M. Abramson, Neil Gong, 2019-12-23 The social sciences have seen a substantial increase in comparative and multi-sited ethnographic projects over the last three decades Yet at present researchers seeking to design comparative field projects have few scholarly works detailing how comparison is conducted in divergent ethnographic approaches In Beyond the Case Corey M Abramson and Neil Gong have gathered together several experts in field research to address these issues by showing how practitioners employing contemporary iterations of ethnographic traditions such as phenomenology grounded theory positivism and interpretivism use comparison in their works The contributors connect the long history of comparative and anti-comparative ethnographic approaches to their contemporary uses By honing in on how ethnographers render sites groups or cases analytically commensurable and comparable Beyond the Case offers a new lens for examining the assumptions payoffs and potential drawbacks of different forms of comparative ethnography

The Line through the Heart J. Budziszewski, 2014-04-29 The suicidal proclivity of our time writes the acclaimed philosopher J Budziszewski is to deny the obvious Our hearts are riddled with desires that oppose their deepest longings because we demand to have happiness on terms that make happiness impossible Why And what can we do about it Budziszewski addresses these vital questions in his brilliantly persuasive new book The Line Through the Heart The answers can be discovered in an exploration of natural law a venture that with Budziszewski as our expert guide takes us through politics religion ethics law philosophy and more Natural law the author states plainly but provocatively is a fact about human beings as surely as we have hands and feet we have the foundational principles of good and evil woven into the fabric of our minds From this elemental fact emerges a natural law theory that unfolds as part of a careful study of the human person Thus Budziszewski shows natural law forms a common ground for humanity But this common ground is slippery While natural law is truly an observable part of human nature human beings are hell bent quite literally on ignoring it The mere mention of the obligations imposed on man by his nature will send him into a rage In this sense The Line Through the Heart explores natural law as not simply a fact and a theory but also a sign of contradiction While investigating the natural law and its implications Budziszewski boldly confronts and offers a newly integrated view of a wide range of contemporary issues including abortion evolution euthanasia capital punishment the courts and the ersatz state religion being built in the name of religious toleration Written in Budziszewski's usual crystalline style The Line Through the Heart makes clear that natural law is a matter of concern not merely to scholars it touches how each of us lives and how all of us live together His profoundly important examination of this subject helps us make sense of why habits that run against our nature have become second nature and why our world seems to be going mad Notes from the Sidelines Leslie Anne Miller, 2009-03 Many people feel sidelined from our busy and preoccupied culture at some time in their lives whether by unemployment injury illness disability or retirement Poems such as Suffering Hope Sidelines and Regrets describe a journey of struggle for perspective and meaning Other poems including Old Sweaters Clutter and Ode to E Mail celebrate the humor playfulness and joy of little things and everyday life Thirty years later people such as Bill Louie and Kitty provide irony fun and inspiration for the journey Notes from the Sidelines will leave you more thoughtful inspired playful and appreciative of the struggles and joys of life The Americana, 1911 New English and Italian Pronouncing and Explanatory Dictionary John Millhouse, 1894 The Country Beyond James Oliver Curwood, 1922 Beyond FTS2000 Bernard J. Bennington, Judy Chamberlain, 1989 Reflecting Senses Walter Pape, Frederick Burwick, 2011-10-13 No detailed description available for Reflecting Senses Anhlo-ukraïns'kyï frazeolohichnyi slovnyk Kostyńańtyn Tymofińovych Barantśev, 1969 The Americana Frederick Converse Beach, George Edwin Rines, 1912 Galdós Beyond Realism Timothy Michael McGovern, 2004 Unity, 1900 To Independence and Beyond Peter Snelson, 1993-04-15 The importance of education and training in developing countries is central to Peter Snelson's memoirs After Cambridge RAF service and teaching in Britain in 1954 he went to Zambia then Northern Rhodesia where he worked as a teacher and education officer later becoming Director of Planning at the Ministry of Education He experienced at first hand the effects of the intense sometimes violent political activity of the years leading up to Zambia's independence and knew many of the leading actors in the drama After independence he stayed on to assist with the integration of African and non African education and the huge expansion of education that followed In 1968 Mr Snelson returned to Britain and joined the Commonwealth Secretariat where he was responsible for developing the Fellowships and Training Programme of the Commonwealth Fund for Technical Co operation Among the special assignments he undertook for the Secretary General was support for the Commonwealth Group which observed Zimbabwe's pre independence elections He writes with sympathy informed understanding and humour of a turbulent period in Africa's recent history and of the development of the modern Commonwealth Electrical Merchandising, 1921
